

Civil List Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 82

An Act to provide for supplementing out of moneys provided by Parliament the sums payable under the enactments mentioned in section 6(1) of the Civil List Act 1972; and to repeal section 5(2)(b) of that Act.
[19th December 1975]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Supplements to sums payable under Civil List Acts.
1972 c. 7.

1.—(1) The Treasury may, out of moneys provided by Parliament, make payments to the Royal Trustees to be applied by them for supplementing all or any of the sums payable under the enactments mentioned in section 6(1) of the Civil List Act 1972 (the Queen's Civil List, annuities for members of the Royal Family, contributions to expenses of certain members of the Royal Family not in receipt of annuities, and Civil List pensions).

(2) Paragraph (b) of section 5(2) of the said Act of 1972 (which requires the Royal Trustees to report if at any time it appears to them that the Civil List expenditure for the next calendar year will exceed the sums available under that Act to meet that expenditure) shall not apply to expenditure for any year after 1975; and accordingly that paragraph, together with the word "and" immediately preceding it, is hereby repealed.

1952 c. 37.

(3) In this section "the Royal Trustees" means the trustees constituted by section 10 of the Civil List Act 1952.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Civil List Act 1975.
