CHAPTER 10.

An Act to provide financial facilities in connection with the construction of large vessels for the North Atlantic shipping trade, and in connection with the merger of certain shipping companies in respect of their interests in that trade; and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid. [28th March 1934.]

BE it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Power to Treasury

1.—(1) The Treasury may from time to time on such terms as they think fit advance out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof to the Cunard Steam Ship Company Limited, or to any company (hereinafter referred to as the "merger company") formed to take over the interests of that company in the North Atlantic shipping trade and all or any of the interests in that trade belonging or formerly belonging to the Oceanic Steam Navigation Company Limited, such sums, not exceeding in all nine million five hundred thousand pounds, as it may appear to the Treasury, after consultation with the Board of Trade, to be expedient to advance for the purposes of constructing one or more large vessels for the North Atlantic shipping trade, and of providing working capital for the merger company.

advances to certain companies.

(2) For the purpose of providing for the issue of sums out of the Consolidated Fund under the last foregoing subsection or for the repayment to that fund of all or any part of any sum so issued, the Treasury may raise money in any manner in which they are authorised to raise money under and for the purpose of subsection (1) of section one of the War Loan Act, 1919, and any securities created and issued to raise money under this subsection shall for all purposes be deemed to have been created and issued under the said subsection (1).

9 & 10
Geo. 5. c. 37.

(3) All sums received by way of interest on advances made under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid into the Exchequer, and all sums received in repayment of such advances shall be applied, in such manner as the Treasury may direct, to the redemption of debt.

2.—(1) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable and shall be deemed not to have been chargeable on any agreement, whether made before or after the passing of this Act, as to the terms on which any such advance as is mentioned in the last foregoing section is to be made, or on any instrument executed or given for the purpose of carrying out any provision of any such agreement, nor shall any fees be payable under section three of the Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898, in respect of the mortgage of any ship or the transfer of the mortgage of any ship, being a mortgage or transfer effected for the purpose of carrying out any such agreement.

Exemption duty and fees.

61 & 62 Vict.
c. 44.

(2) Stamp duty shall not be payable under section one hundred and twelve of the Stamp Act, 1891 (which 54 & 55 Vict.

c. 39.

imposes duties on the capital of limited liability companies) on the statement of the amount which is to form the nominal share capital of the merger company.

Provisions
as to Cunard
(Insurance)
Agreement
Act, 1930.

21 & 22
Geo. 5. c. 2.

3.—(1) After the formation of the merger company the Board of Trade may, with the consent of the Treasury, enter into such agreements with the Cunard Steam Ship Company Limited and the merger company as may, in the opinion of the Board, be necessary to secure that, when the interest of the Cunard Steam Ship Company Limited in the first vessel mentioned in the Cunard (Insurance) Agreement Act, 1930, has been transferred to the merger company, the benefits and obligations conferred and imposed on the Cunard Steam Ship Company Limited by and under the said Act shall (subject to any necessary modifications) also be transferred to the merger company.

(2) The provisions of section three of the said Act shall apply in relation to any such agreement as aforesaid as they apply in relation to the principal agreement as defined in that Act, and references in the other provisions of that Act to the principal agreement shall be construed as including references to the principal agreement as supplemented or modified by any such agreement as aforesaid.
