

CHAPTER 2.

An Act for the protection of the Lapwing.
[28th March 1928.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 1.—(1) It shall not be lawful for any person— Protection of lapwings.
- (a) during any time between the first day of March and the thirty-first day of August to sell any lapwing for human consumption, or to have any lapwing in his possession for the purpose of sale for human consumption; or
- (b) to sell for human consumption, or to have in his possession for the purpose of sale for human consumption, any egg of the lapwing.

(2) So much of section three of the Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880, as relates to exposing or offering for sale or having in control or possession wild birds recently killed or taken shall, as respects lapwings, cease to have effect. 43 & 44 Vict.
c. 35.

(3) In this Act the expression "lapwing" means the bird commonly called the lapwing, green plover, peesweep or peewit.

2. A person guilty of any offence against this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds. Penalties.

3. This Act shall not apply to Northern Ireland. Application.

4. This Act may be cited as the Protection of Lapwings Act, 1928. Short title.
