Amendment of 56 & 57
Vict. c. 39.
s. 22.

1. Notwithstanding anything in section twenty-two of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893, a member of a society registered under that Act shall not, without his consent in writing having been first obtained, be bound by any amendment of rules registered after he became a member and after the passing of this Act, if and so far as such amendment requires him to take or subscribe for more shares than the number held by him at the date of registration of the amendment, or to pay upon the shares so held any sum exceeding the amount unpaid upon them at that date, or in any other way increases the liability of the member to contribute to the share or loan capital of the society.

tion, and extent.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Industrial and Provident Societies (Amendment) Act, 1928, and shall be construed as one with the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1913, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1928.

(2) This Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

CHAPTER 5.

An Act to make provision for the Government of the Colony of British Guiana.

[28th March 1928.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Power to create new legislature for British Guiana.

1.—(1) It shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to create and constitute, in substitution for the existing legislature, a legislature for the Colony of British Guiana in such form and with such powers as His Majesty in Council may determine, and from time to time to alter and amend the constitution of the legislature and any powers thereof; and any such Order in Council may provide that, notwithstanding the powers conferred on the legislature thereby, there shall be reserved to or conferred on His Majesty full power by Order in Council from time to time to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the Colony of British Guiana.

(2) Before any such Order in Council creating and constituting such legislature or altering the constitution or powers thereof is made, a draft thereof shall be laid before each House of Parliament for a period of not less than twenty-one days on which that House has sat, and if either House of Parliament before the expiration of that period presents an address to His Majesty against the Order or any part thereof, no further proceedings shall be taken on the draft, without prejudice to the making of a new draft Order.

2. This Act may be cited as the British Guiana Act, 1928. Short title.

CHAPTER 6.

An Act to amend the Rating (Scotland) Act, 1926, with respect to the ascertainment of the amount of the additional annual grant for Scotland under the Agricultural Rates Act, 1923, and the payments to rating authorities in respect of that grant and in certain other respects.

[28th March 1928.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—
