

(2) Any expenses incurred by the council in the execution of this section shall be deemed to be expenses incurred for the purposes of the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1902, as amended by this Act, and shall be defrayed in like manner as those expenses accordingly.

3.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Public Libraries (Art Galleries in County Boroughs) (Ireland) Act, 1911, and shall be construed as one with the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1902; and those Acts and this Act may be cited collectively as the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1911.

Short title, construction, and citation.

(2) In this Act the expression "Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1902," means the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1894, and the Public Libraries (Ireland) Act, 1902.

CHAPTER 10.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the share of Intestate Husband's Estate falling to the Widow in Scotland.

[18th August 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The heritable and moveable estate of every man who shall die intestate, domiciled in Scotland, after the passing of this Act, leaving a widow but no lawful issue, shall, in all cases where the net value of such heritable and moveable estate, taken together, shall not exceed five hundred pounds, belong to his widow absolutely and exclusively.

Intestates' estate not exceeding five hundred pounds to belong to widow where no issue.

2. Where the net value of the heritable and moveable estate in the preceding section mentioned shall exceed the sum of five hundred pounds, the widow of such intestate shall be entitled to five hundred pounds part thereof absolutely and exclusively, and shall be a creditor upon the whole of such heritable and moveable estate for such five hundred pounds with interest thereon from the date of the death of the intestate at four per cent. per annum until payment.

Widow to be a creditor for five hundred pounds if estate exceeds this amount.

3. As between the heir-at-law and the representatives of the moveable estate of such intestate, such charge shall be borne and paid in proportion to the net values of the heritable and moveable estate respectively.

How charge to be borne between heritable and moveable estate.

4. The provision for the widow intended to be made by this Act shall be in addition and without prejudice to her rights of terce and jus relictæ in the heritable and moveable estate of such intestate remaining after payment of the sum of five hundred pounds, in the same way as if the residue, after payment of the said five hundred pounds, had been the whole of such intestate's estate, heritable and moveable, and this Act had not passed.

Provisions to be in addition to share of residue.

valued.

5. The net value of such heritable estate as aforesaid shall, for the purposes of this Act, be estimated in the case of a fee simple upon the basis of twenty years' purchase of the annual value by the year at the date of the death of the intestate as determined by law for the purposes of property tax, less the gross amount of any debt or other principal sum heritably secured thereon, and less the value of any annuity or other periodical payment chargeable thereon, to be valued according to the tables and rules in the schedule annexed to the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and in the case of an estate for a life or lives according to the said tables and rules.

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 51.

How moveable estate to be valued.

6. The net value of the moveable estate as aforesaid shall be ascertained by deducting from the gross value thereof all debts, funeral and testamentary expenses of the intestate, and all other lawful liabilities and charges to which the said moveable estate shall be subject.

Extent of Act.

7. This Act shall apply to Scotland only.

Short title.

8. This Act may be cited as the Intestate Husband's Estate (Scotland) Act, 1911.

CHAPTER 11.

An Act to enable Orders to be made under the Diseases of Animals Acts for protecting Live Poultry from unnecessary suffering, and for other purposes connected therewith. [18th August 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Power to make orders for protecting poultry from unnecessary suffering, &c.
57 & 58 Vict.
c. 57.

1.—(1) The Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, as amended by any subsequent enactment, shall have effect as if, among the purposes for which Orders may be made under section twenty-two of that Act, there were included the following purposes:—

(a) for protecting live poultry from unnecessary suffering while being conveyed by land or water and in connexion with their exposure for sale and their disposal after sale:

(b) for requiring the cleansing or disinfection of receptacles or vehicles used for the conveyance of live poultry,
