CHAPTER 18.

An Act to amend the Indian High Courts Act, 1861.

[18th August 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Increase of number of judges of High Court.
24 & 25 Vict.
c. 104.

1. The maximum number of judges of a High Court of Judicature in India, including the Chief Justice, shall be twenty, and section two of the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, shall have effect accordingly.

Power to establish additional High Courts.

2. The power of His Majesty under section sixteen of the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, may be exercised from time to time, and a High Court may be established under that section in any portion of the territories within His Majesty's dominions in India, whether or not included within the limits of the local jurisdiction of another High Court; and, where such a High Court is established in any part of such territories included within the limits of the local jurisdiction of another High Court, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by letters patent to alter the local jurisdiction of that other High Court and to make such incidental, consequential, and supplemental provisions as may appear to be necessary by reason of the alteration of those limits.

3. Subject to the provisions of section two of the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, as amended by this Act, regulating the number and qualifications of judges, it shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council to appoint from time to time persons to act as additional judges of any High Court for such period not exceeding two years as may be required, and the judges so appointed shall, whilst so acting, have all the powers of a judge of the High Court appointed by His Majesty under section two of the said Act: Provided that such additional judges shall not be taken into account in determining the proportions specified in the proviso to that section.

appoint temporary judges.

4. The salaries of any judges or temporary judges appointed under this Act shall be paid out of the Revenues of India.

Salaries.

5. This Act may be cited as the Indian High Courts Act, 1911, and shall be construed as one with the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, and that Act and the Indian High Courts Act, 1865, and this Act, may be cited together as the Indian High Courts Acts, 1861 to 1911.

Short title.

28 & 29 Vict.
c. 15.

CHAPTER 19.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Labourers in Ireland.
[18th August 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) The Bank of Ireland shall, upon the order of the Lord Chancellor, out of the fund of suitors in the Supreme Court, pay to the Local Government Board for Ireland for the purposes of the Labourers Acts the sum of thirty-six thousand pounds.

Application of dormant portion of Irish Suitors' Fund to the purposes of the Labourers Acts.

(2) The Accountant General of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland shall, upon the order of the Lord Chancellor, out of the new Two-and-a-half per cent. consolidated stock forming portion of the fund of suitors in the Supreme Court and standing to the credit of the general ledger account kept by him for dormant balances and the unclaimed order and residue account, Land Judge's Court, transfer to the Local Government Board for the purposes aforesaid stock to the nominal value of thirty thousand pounds.

(3) The Local Government Board may sell the stock transferred to them under this section at such time or times and in such manner as they think fit, and may invest the proceeds, together with the sum of thirty-six thousand pounds payable to them under this section, in any securities in which they are authorised to invest money by subsection (2) of section thirteen of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1906, as amended by this Act, 6 Edw. 7. c. 37.
