

Lands Clauses Acts, and the council shall thereupon have with respect to the land, estate, or interest all the like rights and powers as if the purchase money or compensation had been paid into the High Court.

(2) Rules of the county court shall regulate the practice and procedure under this section, and the provisions of subsection (12) of section eleven of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1906, with respect to county court rules under that section shall apply to the rules to be made under this section.

(3) In subsection (8) of the said section eleven the words "and exceeds ten pounds" are hereby repealed.

Evidence of orders of Local Government Board inspectors.
6 Edw. 7. c. 37.

7. A document purporting to be an order made by an inspector of the Local Government Board under section six of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1906, and to be signed by him, or purporting to be a copy of such an order and to be certified as such a copy by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Board, shall be admissible in evidence in any court or before any person having by law or consent of parties power to receive evidence.

Interpretation.

8. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The expression "Labourers Acts" means the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, 1883 to 1906, and this Act;

The expression "fund of suitors in the Supreme Court" has the same meaning as in the Four Courts Library Act, 1894.

57 & 58 Vict.
c. 4.

Construction and citation.

9. This Act shall be construed as one with the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, 1883 to 1906, and may be cited with those Acts.

Short title.

10. This Act may be cited as the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1911.

CHAPTER 20.

An Act to make such amendments in the Law as are necessary to enable certain reserved provisions of the Second Geneva Convention to be carried into effect.

[18th August 1911.]

WHEREAS His Majesty has ratified, with certain reservations, the Convention for the amelioration of the condition of the wounded and sick of armies in the field, drawn up in Geneva in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and it is desirable, in order that those reservations may be withdrawn, that such amendments should be made in the law as are in this Act contained :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) As from the commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person to use for the purposes of his trade or business, or for any other purpose whatsoever, without the authority of the Army Council, the heraldic emblem of the red cross on a white ground formed by reversing the Federal colours of Switzerland, or the words “Red Cross” or “Geneva Cross,” and, if any person acts in contravention of this provision, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds, and to forfeit any goods upon or in connection with which the emblem or words were used.

Prohibition of use of emblem of red cross on white ground, &c.

(2) Where a company or society is guilty of any such contravention, without prejudice to the liability of the company or society, every director, manager, secretary, and other officer of the company or society who is knowingly a party to the contravention shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and liable to the like penalty.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the right (if any) of the proprietor of a trade mark registered before the passing of this Act, and containing any such emblem or words, to continue to use such trade mark for a period of four years from the passing of this Act, and, if the period of the registration or of the renewal of registration of any such trade mark expires during those four years, the registration thereof may be renewed until the expiration of those four years, but without payment of any fee.

(4) Proceedings under this Act shall not in England or Ireland be instituted without the consent of the Attorney-General.

(5) This Act shall extend to His Majesty's possessions outside the United Kingdom, subject to such necessary adaptations as may be made by Order in Council.

2. This Act may be cited as the Geneva Convention Act, Short title. 1911.

CHAPTER 21.

An Act to give power to make Regulations with respect to Cotton Cloth Factories. [18th August 1911.]
