

CHAPTER 42.

An Act to give jurisdiction under section seventy-six and Part VIII. of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to certain British Courts in foreign countries.

[16th December 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Extension of jurisdiction under s. 76 and Part VIII. of 57 & 58 Vict. c. 60 to certain British Courts in foreign countries.

1.—(1) Among the courts before which a ship may be brought for adjudication under section seventy-six of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (which relates to proceedings on forfeiture of a ship), there shall be included any British Court in a foreign country, being a court having Admiralty jurisdiction, as if such a court were included among the courts specified in that section, and that section shall be construed and have effect accordingly.

(2) Any such British Court shall also have jurisdiction to entertain any proceedings under Part VIII. of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and accordingly section five hundred and four of that Act (which relates to the power of courts to consolidate claims against owners) shall be construed and have effect as if such a court were included among the courts to which an application under that section may be made.

(3) In this Act the expression "British Court in a foreign country" means any British Court having jurisdiction out of His Majesty's Dominions in pursuance of an Order in Council whether made under any Act or otherwise.

Short title and construction.

2. This Act may be cited as the Merchant Shipping Act, 1911, and shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1907, and this Act may be cited together as the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1911.

CHAPTER 43.

An Act to extend the provisions of the Medical Acts to the University of Wales and to Graduates in Medicine and Surgery thereof.

[16th December 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.
49 & 50 Vict.
c. 48.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the University of Wales (Medical Graduates) Act, 1911.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Medical Act, 1886. Construction.

3.—(1) The University is hereby empowered to hold qualifying examinations in medicine, surgery, and midwifery for the purpose of granting a diploma or diplomas conferring the right of registration under the Medical Acts, and Part I. of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be read and have effect as if the University had been a university in the United Kingdom legally qualified at the passing of that Act to grant diplomas in medicine and surgery. Power of the University of Wales to hold examinations under 49 & 50 Vict. c. 48.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the supplemental charter granted to the University by his late Majesty King Edward the Seventh, dated the thirteenth day of August in the sixth year of his reign, degrees conferred by the University in the faculty or faculties of medicine and surgery on persons who have passed such qualifying examinations shall be deemed to confer registrable qualifications under the Medical Acts.

4. The General Council constituted by the Medical Acts shall include one person chosen from time to time by the University, and section seven of the Medical Act, 1886, shall be read and have effect as if the University had been expressly named therein as one of the bodies by whom persons to be included in the General Council aforesaid should be chosen. Provided always that the fees for attendance and the travelling expenses of such member payable under section twelve of the Medical Act, 1858, shall not be paid from the funds of the said General Council or of the Branch Council for England mentioned in the Medical Acts until such time as upon the representation of the General Council or of the Privy Council made in the manner set forth in sections ten and nineteen of the Medical Act, 1886; and subject to the provisions therein contained, His Majesty may by Order in Council appoint. Power of the University of Wales to choose a member of the Medical Council.
21 & 22 Vict. c. 90.

CHAPTER 44.

An Act to amend the Military Manœuvres Act, 1897.

[16th December 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Any area may, if the council of the county or borough in which it is situate consent, be included within the limits specified in any Order in Council made under section one of the Military Manœuvres Act, 1897 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), notwithstanding that the area has been Amendment of 60 & 61 Vict. c. 43, s. 1.
