

CHAPTER lxx.

An Act to extend the periods for the compulsory purchase of lands for and for the construction and completion of the graving dock and works authorised by the Dover Graving Dock Act 1908. A.D. 1911.

[18th August 1911.]

WHEREAS by the Dover Graving Dock Act 1908 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1908") the Dover Graving Dock Company (in this Act called "the Company") were incorporated and authorised to make and maintain a dock and other works in connection therewith at Dover in the county of Kent:

And whereas by the Act of 1908 the periods for the compulsory purchase of lands and for the construction and completion of works were limited to three and five years respectively from the passing of that Act which received the Royal Assent on the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and eight:

And whereas it is expedient that the powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands should be extended and that the time for the construction and completion of the graving dock and works should also be extended as hereinafter provided:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—
