

CHAPTER xi.

An Act to extend the time limited for the compulsory purchase of certain lands and the construction of certain works by the London United Tramways Limited and for other purposes. A.D. 1911.
[2nd June 1911.]

WHEREAS the London United Tramways Limited (in this Act called "the Company") are under and by virtue of the London United Tramways Acts 1873 to 1910 the owners of or are authorised to construct tramways and a light railway in the counties of Middlesex Surrey and London :

And whereas by the London United Tramways Act 1902 (herein-after called "the Act of 1902") the Company were subject to the provisions in that Act contained authorised to construct a tramway therein described as Tramway No. 7 in substitution for the existing line of tramway in Kew Road in the borough of Richmond (Surrey) : 2 Edw. VII.
c. ccxlvii.

And whereas the time limited by the Act of 1902 for the construction of the said tramway as extended by the London United Tramways Act 1910 (herein-after called "the Act of 1910") will expire on the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and eleven : 10 Edw. VII.
and 1 Geo. V.
c. cxii.

And whereas it is expedient that the time limited for the construction of the said Tramway No. 7 should be further extended as in this Act provided :

And whereas provisions are contained in section 6 of the London United Tramways Act 1908 (as amended by section 3 of the Act of 1910) whereby the Company may become liable to pay certain sums of money to the mayor aldermen and burgesses of the borough of Richmond (Surrey) (herein-after called "the corporation") if the tramways authorised by the said Act of 8 Edw. VII.
c. c.

A.D. 1911. 1908 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1908") and the said Tramway No. 7 and all widenings incidental to the last-mentioned tramway are not completed and the said tramways are not opened for public traffic on or before the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and eleven and it is expedient that the said sections should be modified as herein-after provided:

And whereas by the Act of 1902 it is provided that the time at which the corporation shall be entitled to first exercise their power under section 43 of the Tramways Act 1870 to purchase such of the tramways by that Act authorised as are within the borough of Richmond (Surrey) including the existing tramway in Kew Road shall be six months after the expiration of a period of thirty years from the passing of the said Act:

And whereas provisions are contained in section 5 of the Act of 1910 whereby the corporation may under certain circumstances become entitled to exercise such power as if the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and eleven had been referred to in lieu of six months after the expiration of a period of thirty years from the passing of the Act of 1902 and it is expedient that section 5 of the Act of 1910 should be modified as herein-after provided:

And whereas it is expedient that the time limited by the Act of 1908 for the compulsory purchase of the lands in the county of Surrey by that Act authorised to be acquired should be extended as in this Act provided:

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

Short titles.
