

(2) Any sums paid by or to the Council in pursuance of a scheme under this section shall be paid out of or, as the case may be, into the Agricultural Research Fund, and there shall also be paid into the Fund such moneys as may be provided by Parliament for the purpose of defraying the whole or part of the payments made out of the Fund by virtue of this Act; and any sums paid by or to the Secretary of State or the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food in pursuance of a scheme under this section shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament or, as the case may be, shall be paid into the Exchequer.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prejudice any power conferred by the Council's charter as for the time being in force, or any pension scheme made under such a power.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Agricultural Research etc. (Pensions) Act, 1961, and may be cited together with the Agricultural Research Act, 1956, as the Agricultural Research Acts, 1956 and 1961. Citation and extent.
4 & 5 Eliz. 2.
c. 28.

(2) This Act does not extend to Northern Ireland.

CHAPTER 10

An Act to authorise the Secretary of State to contribute to the expenses incurred in connection with the employment of persons in the public services of overseas territories or in respect of compensation paid to persons who are or have been employed in those services.

[2nd March, 1961]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) The Secretary of State may enter into agreements with governments of overseas territories for reimbursing those governments, to the extent specified in the agreements, in respect of such expenses incurred by them— Power to contribute to expenses

(a) in connection with the employment in the public services of their territories of persons designated by him in accordance with the agreements; or

(b) in respect of compensation paid to persons so designated who are or have been employed in those services, as may be specified in the agreements; and may out of moneys provided by Parliament make any payments falling to be made under the agreements.

(2) No such agreement shall be entered into, and no person shall be designated under such an agreement, except with the consent of the Treasury.

(3) The consent of the Treasury to the designation of any person under such an agreement may be given generally in respect of persons of such descriptions, and subject to such limitations (if any), as may be specified in the consent.

6 & 7 Eliz. 2.
c. 14.

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) of section seven of the Overseas Service Act, 1958, shall apply to the interpretation of this section as if it were contained in that Act.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Overseas Service Act, 1961

CHAPTER 11

An Act to provide for conferring certain immunities on representatives of Governments of Commonwealth countries and the Republic of Ireland attending conferences in the United Kingdom and on their staffs.
[2nd March, 1961]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Diplomatic immunities of Commonwealth representatives attending conferences.

1.—(1) Where a conference is held in the United Kingdom and is attended by representatives of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and of the government or governments of one or more countries to which this section applies, the Secretary of State may compile a list of representatives of the last-mentioned government or governments attending the conference and members of their official staffs, and cause that list to be published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes, and every representative of a government to which this section applies who is for the time being included in the list shall, for the purpose of any enactment and rule of law or custom relating to the immunities of an envoy of a foreign Sovereign Power accredited to Her Majesty and of the retinue of such an envoy, be treated as if he were such an envoy and, subject to the provisions of this section, such of the members of his official staff as are for the time being included in the list shall be treated for the purpose aforesaid as if they were his retinue.