

CHAPTER ix.

An Act to confer further powers upon the corporation of Preston with reference to their water undertaking and the finance of the borough and for other purposes. [29th March 1933.] A.D. 1933.

WHEREAS the county borough of Preston is a municipal borough under the management and local government of the mayor aldermen and burgesses of the borough acting by the council (in this Act respectively referred to as "the borough" and "the Corporation") :

And whereas by the Preston Corporation Act 1921 the Corporation were authorised to construct certain works for taking the waters of the Langden Brook and Hareden Brook and certain aqueducts for conveying the same to the limits for the supply of water by the Corporation :

And whereas in order to limit interference with important highways it is expedient that the Corporation should be empowered to make the deviation by this Act authorised of a portion of the said aqueducts :

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made with regard to the finance of the borough and that the powers of the Corporation in relation thereto should be enlarged and extended :

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted :

A.D. 1933.

And whereas a plan and section showing the lines and levels of the work to be authorised by this Act and a book of reference to the plan containing the names of the owners or reputed owners and lessees or reputed lessees and of the occupiers of the lands required or which may be taken for the purposes or under the powers of this Act were duly deposited with the clerk of the county council of the county palatine of Lancaster which plan section and book of reference are in this Act respectively referred to as the deposited plan section and book of reference :

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament :

And whereas in relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the requirements of the Borough Funds Acts 1872 and 1903 have been observed :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say) :—

Provided that an amount equivalent to the interest and other annual proceeds as aforesaid shall (subject in the case of any of the said funds to any prescribed limit on the amount thereof) be credited in the accounts to the fund on the investments of which the same is received.

(2) Nothing in this section shall authorise the Corporation to apply capital money to any purpose other than a purpose to which capital money is properly applicable.

Accounts of undertakings.

16.—(1) The Corporation shall notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment to the contrary keep their accounts so as to distinguish capital from revenue and as to revenue so as to show under a separate heading or division in respect of each of the undertakings of the Corporation as from time to time existing from which revenue is derived (each of which is in this section separately referred to as "the undertaking") on the one side all receipts in respect of the undertaking and on the other side all payments and expenses in respect of the undertaking such payments and expenses being divided so as also to show in each case the amounts representing—

- (a) the working and establishment expenses and cost of maintenance of the undertaking;
- (b) the interest on moneys borrowed by the Corporation for the purposes of or connected with the undertaking;
- (c) the requisite appropriations instalments or sinking fund payments in respect of moneys borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking;

(d) all other expenses (if any) of the undertaking properly chargeable to revenue; and A.D. 1933.

(e) any money expended on any of the purposes mentioned in the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Application of revenue of undertakings."

(2) The Corporation shall show in their accounts relating to any undertaking all items (including receipts and payments in respect of loans applicable thereto) which ought to be entered therein in order to show the financial position of the undertaking.

(3) In all cases in which the Corporation keep separate accounts for separate purposes they shall so far as reasonably practicable apportion between those accounts or carry to any of them any receipts credits payments and liabilities which from time to time ought to be so apportioned or carried.

17. If in any year the moneys received by the Corporation on account of the revenue of any undertaking of the Corporation as from time to time existing from which revenue is derived exceed the moneys paid or expended by the Corporation in respect of that undertaking for the several purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a) (b) (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Accounts of undertakings" the Corporation may in respect of that year (if they think fit) apply out of the general rate fund a sum not exceeding the amount of such excess to any of the following purposes:—

Application of revenue of undertakings.

(a) In reduction of capital moneys borrowed for the purposes of the undertaking ;

(b) In the construction renewal extension or improvement of any works and conveniences for the purposes of the undertaking subject in the case of the electricity undertaking to the consent of the Electricity Commissioners ;

(c) In the provision of a reserve fund in respect of each of the undertakings by setting aside such an amount as they may from time to time think reasonable and (unless the amounts so set aside are used under the provisions of section 43 (Use of moneys forming part of sinking and other funds) of the Act of 1929) investing the same in statutory securities until the fund so provided amounts in the case of the electricity undertaking to a sum equal to one-tenth of the aggregate capital expenditure for the time being upon that undertaking and in the case of other undertakings to the maximum reserve fund from time to time prescribed by the Corporation but not exceeding in the case of the water undertaking or the Ribble Navigation undertaking a sum equal to one-tenth of the aggregate capital expenditure for the time being upon those undertakings respectively.

Provisions
as to reserve funds &c.

18.—(1) Any reserve or renewals or contingency or depreciation fund which has been formed in respect of any undertaking of the Corporation as from time to time existing from which revenue is derived and which is in existence at the passing of this Act shall be carried to and form part of any reserve fund provided under paragraph (c) of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Application of revenue of undertakings" in respect of such undertaking.

(2) Any such reserve fund may be applied to answer any deficiency at any time happening in the income of the Corporation from the undertaking in respect of which it is formed or to meet any extraordinary claim or demand at any time arising against the Corporation in respect of that undertaking or (except in the case of the electricity undertaking) for payment of the cost of renewing improving or extending any works forming part thereof or (except in the case of the electricity undertaking) otherwise for the benefit of that undertaking and so that if that fund be at any time reduced it may thereafter be again restored to the prescribed maximum and so from time to time as often as such reduction happens.

(3) Resort may be had to any such reserve fund although such fund may not at the time have reached or may have been reduced below the prescribed maximum.

Provisions
as to surplus electricity revenue.

19.—(1) In lieu of the provisions of subsection (1) of section 7 of the schedule to the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act 1899 and of the amendments to that subsection set out in the Fifth Schedule to the Electricity

(Supply) Act 1926 the following provisions (in addition to the provisions of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Application of revenue of undertakings") shall apply with respect to the electricity undertaking of the Corporation as from time to time existing (namely) :—

If in any year the accounts of the electricity undertaking kept under the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Accounts of undertakings" shall show that the revenue of the said undertaking in respect of that year (including if and so long as any reserve fund provided in connection with the said undertaking amounts to a sum equal to one-tenth part of the aggregate capital expended for the time being upon that undertaking the interest and other annual proceeds received by the Corporation in respect of that year on the investments forming part of that reserve fund) shall exceed the total amount of the payments and expenses in respect of the year for the several purposes mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) of the last-mentioned section then—

(a) If the reserve fund in respect of the said undertaking does not amount to more than one-twentieth of the said aggregate capital a sum equal to the amount of such excess shall be deemed for the purposes of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Accounts of undertakings" to be revenue of the said undertaking in respect of the next following year and a reduction shall be made in the charges for electricity supplied by the Corporation of such respective amounts as will as nearly as reasonably practicable be equivalent in the aggregate to the said excess ;

(b) If the said reserve fund amounts to more than one-twentieth of the said aggregate capital such amount as the Corporation may think fit (not being less in any case in which the said excess is more than a sum equal to one and a half per centum of the outstanding debt of the said undertaking than the difference between the said excess and that sum) shall be deemed for the purposes of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is “Accounts of undertakings” to be revenue of the said undertaking in respect of the next following year and a reduction shall be made in the charges for electricity supplied by the Corporation of such respective amounts as will as nearly as reasonably practicable be equivalent in the aggregate to the amount so deemed to be revenue.

(2) Subsection (1) of section 7 of the said schedule to the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act 1899 shall be deemed to be excluded from incorporation with any of the Preston Corporation Electricity Act and Orders 1922 to 1931.

certain sections and repeal.

20.—(1) The sections of this Act of which the marginal notes are “Receipts and expenses” “Accounts of undertakings” “Application of revenue of undertakings” and “Provisions as to surplus electricity revenue” shall be deemed to have come into operation on the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

(2) As from the said date the following enactments are repealed:—

The Ribble Navigation and Preston Dock Act 1883—

Section 125 (Application of harbour revenue);

(g) Risks of loss due to infidelity of officers or servants of the Corporation;

(h) Any other risks against which in the absence of such an insurance fund the Corporation would ordinarily insure.

(2) The establishment of an insurance fund under this section shall not prevent the Corporation from insuring in one or more insurance offices of good repute against the whole or any part of all or any of the several risks for which the insurance fund is intended to provide.

(3) In each year after the establishment of the insurance fund the Corporation shall pay into that fund either—

(a) such a sum as shall in their opinion be not less than the aggregate amount of the premiums which would be payable if the Corporation fully insured in some insurance office of good repute against the several risks for which the insurance fund is intended to provide; or

(b) if the Corporation partly insure in some insurance office of good repute against the whole or any part of all or any of the several risks for which the insurance fund is intended to provide such sum as will together with the premiums paid for the last-mentioned insurance be not less than the aggregate amount aforesaid.

(4) When the insurance fund shall amount to three hundred thousand pounds the Corporation may if they think fit discontinue the yearly payments to the fund but if the fund is at any time reduced below three hundred thousand pounds the Corporation shall recommence and continue the yearly payments to that fund in accordance with subsection (3) of this section until the fund be restored to the sum of three hundred thousand pounds.

(5) The Corporation shall provide the yearly payments aforesaid by contributions from the general rate fund and shall show the same in their accounts under the separate heading or division in respect of the particular undertaking or department of the Corporation which if the risks were insured against in an insurance office would be properly chargeable with the payment of the premium of such insurance.

(6) Except so far as the insurance fund and the proceeds of sale of securities in which that fund is invested may be necessary to meet losses damages costs and expenses in consequence of risks for which the fund is intended to provide all moneys for the time being standing to the credit of the fund shall (subject to the provisions of section 43 (Use of moneys forming part of sinking and other funds) of the Act of 1929) be invested in statutory securities and the interest and annual proceeds arising from those securities shall be invested and accumulated until the fund amounts to the sum of three hundred thousand pounds and when and so long as the fund amounts to that sum the interest and annual proceeds of the securities shall be carried to the credit of the general rate fund and apportioned in the accounts of the Corporation between the several undertakings departments or services liable to contribute to the insurance fund in such shares or proportions as may be equitable.

(7) For the purposes of this section the Corporation may if they deem it expedient include in the risks provided for under paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section risks of accident to any teacher employed in any public elementary school maintained by the Corporation notwithstanding that such school has not been provided by the Corporation as the local education authority.

(8) The insurance fund shall be applied to meet any losses damages costs or expenses sustained by the Corporation in consequence of risks for which it is intended to provide in the order of the dates on which such losses damages costs or expenses become ascertained and if at any time and from time to time the insurance fund shall be insufficient to make good any such losses damages costs or expenses the Corporation may with the sanction of the Minister of Health and on such security repayable within such period as that Minister may prescribe borrow at interest under and subject to the provisions of this Act such sums of money as will be necessary to make up the deficiency. The amounts of the annual charges in respect of interest on and repayment of principal of any sums so borrowed and the amounts of any such deficiencies as aforesaid not made up by borrowing shall be paid out of the general
