

CHAPTER 11.

An Act to extend the House of Commons Disqualification (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1941, with amendments, and to provide for the prospective repeal of the Ministers of the Crown (Emergency Appointments) Act, 1939. [26th February 1942.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The number of persons exempted from disqualification by virtue of certificates issued for the purposes of subsection (1) of section one of the House of Commons Disqualification (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1941, shall not at any time exceed twenty-five: Limitation of numbers of certificates under 4 & 5 Geo. 6. c. 8.

Provided that if an address is presented to His Majesty by the Commons House of Parliament praying that the said number be raised, His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that this subsection shall have effect as if such higher number as may be specified in the address were therein substituted for the number twenty-five.

2. The House of Commons Disqualification (Temporary Provisions) Act, 1941, shall, as amended by this Act, continue in force until the expiration of the period of two years after the passing of that Act, and accordingly subsection (2) of section two of that Act shall have effect as if for the words "one year" there were substituted the words "two years". Continuation of 4 & 5 Geo. 6. c. 8.
