

CHAPTER 14.

An Act to extend the powers of the Treasury to raise money under section one of the National Loans Act, 1939. [29th April 1942.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply granted to Your Majesty for the service of the year ending the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-three, have resolved that money be raised in manner provided by this Act; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The power of the Treasury to raise money under section one of the National Loans Act, 1939, shall include power to raise any money required for raising any supply granted to His Majesty for the service of the year ending the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-three, and in addition a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty million pounds.

Further provision for raising money. 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 117.

2. This Act may be cited as the National Loans Act, 1942, and shall be construed as one with the National Loans Acts, 1939 to 1941, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the National Loans Acts, 1939 to 1942.
