CHAPTER 2

An Act to provide for raising further money for the development of the postal, telegraphic and telephonic systems and the repayment to the Post Office Fund of money applied thereout for such development, to amend the enactments relating to Post Office accounts and for purposes connected therewith.

[27th April 1950.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Grant for development of postal, telegraphic and
systems.

1.—(1) Without prejudice to the exercise of any powers previously given for the like purpose, the Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof (hereafter in this Act referred to as "the Consolidated Fund") such sums, not exceeding in the whole the sum of seventy-five million pounds, as may be required by the Postmaster-General for developing, according to estimates approved by the Treasury, the postal, telegraphic and telephonic systems, or for repaying to the Post Office Fund any moneys which may have been applied thereout for that purpose.

(2) The Treasury may, if they think fit, for the purpose of providing money for sums so authorised to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund, or for repaying to that fund all or any part of the sums so issued, borrow by means of terminable annuities for a term not exceeding twenty years, and all sums so borrowed shall be paid into the Exchequer.

(3) The said annuities shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament for the service of the Post Office, and if those moneys are insufficient shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

2.—(1) No account or statement relating to a period after the Accounts financial year ending on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen and audit. hundred and forty-nine, shall be required to be prepared or audited—

- (a) under section two of the Telegraph (Money) Act, 1920 10 & 11 (which relates to statements of loan charges and income Geo. 5. c. 37. and expenditure accounts in connection with the telegraph and telephone services of the Post Office); or
- (b) under section five of the Telephone Transfer Act, 1911, 1 & 2 Geo. 5. as extended by any subsequent enactment (which section c. 26. as so extended relates to certain loan expenditure accounts in connection with those services).

(2) It is hereby declared that section five of the Exchequer and 11 & 12 Audit Departments Act, 1921 (which relates to the preparation Geo. 5. c. 52. by government departments of income and expenditure accounts of commercial services, together with balance sheets and statements of profit and loss, and to the examination of those accounts by the Comptroller and Auditor-General), applies in relation to the telegraph and telephone services of the Post Office notwithstanding the provision made at the date of the passing of that Act by the enactment referred to in paragraph (a) of the foregoing subsection.

(3) In respect of any financial year to which this subsection applies the Postmaster-General shall prepare, in such form and manner as the Treasury may direct, an account of all sums issued under section one of this Act or a corresponding enactment and of all expenditure from sums so issued.

(4) In the last foregoing subsection the expression "a 11 & 12 corresponding enactment" means section one of the Post Office Geo. 6. c. 16. and Telegraph (Money) Act, 1948, section five of the Common- 12, 13 & 14 wealth Telegraphs Act, 1949, and any other enactment to which Geo. 6. c. 39.

the subsection is extended by an Act passed after this Act; and the subsection shall apply to the financial year ending on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty, and any subsequent financial year in which any sums are issued as mentioned in that subsection or there is any expenditure from sums so issued.

(5) An account prepared under subsection (3) of this section in respect of any financial year shall be transmitted to the Comptroller and Auditor-General not later than the thirtieth day of November next following the end of that year, and he shall examine and certify the account and lay copies thereof, together with his report thereon, before Parliament.

(6) The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Post Office and Telegraph (Money) Act, 1950.
