

CHAPTER 25.

An Act to provide for the payment out of moneys provided by Parliament towards local government expenses in Scotland of a further sum in addition to the General Exchequer Contribution payable under section fifty-three of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929, in respect of each of three years and for the apportionment of such sum among the counties and large burghs of Scotland.
[14th February 1946.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) There shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament towards local government expenses in counties and large burghs in Scotland in addition to the General Exchequer Contribution payable under section fifty-three of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929, sums in respect of the year beginning on the sixteenth day of May nineteen hundred and forty-five and of each of the two following years amounting respectively to one million three hundred and seventy-five thousand pounds, one million five hundred and twelve thousand five hundred pounds, and one million six hundred and fifty thousand pounds.

Additional Exchequer Contribution towards local government expenses in Scotland:

19 & 20 Geo. 5.
c. 25.

(2) In section one of the Local Government (Financial Provisions) (Scotland) Act, 1937 (which provides that the General Exchequer Contribution for the fourth or any subsequent fixed grant period shall be of an amount bearing to the total amount of rate and grant borne expenditure in the penultimate year of the preceding fixed grant period a proportion not less than twenty-four and six-tenths per cent.) any reference to rate and grant borne expenditure shall include a reference to such local expenditure as fell to be borne by grants paid under this Act,

1 Edw. 8. and
1 Geo. 6. c. 29.

and to such local expenditure as the Secretary of State may determine to have fallen to be borne by advances made by him out of moneys provided by Parliament otherwise than under this Act or the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929, or any other enactment relating to the functions of local authorities.

Apportionment of additional Exchequer Contribution.

2. The sum payable out of moneys provided by Parliament in pursuance of subsection (1) of the foregoing section in respect of any year shall be apportioned among the counties and large burghs in accordance with the Schedule to this Act and there shall be paid to the council of each county or large burgh specified in the first column of the said Schedule in respect of each of the aforesaid three years the amount set forth in that Schedule opposite that county or burgh and under that year.

Application of certain provisions of Part III of 19 & 20
Geo. 5. c. 25.

3. The following provisions in Part III of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929, shall apply in like manner as they apply to the grants payable thereunder, to the amounts payable to the councils of counties and large burghs in pursuance of section two of this Act, that is to say—

- (a) section sixty-five (which relates to the time and manner of payment of grants) ;
- (b) section sixty-six (which relates to the reduction of grants) ;
- (c) section sixty-seven (which relates to the application of grants) ; and
- (d) paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section seventy (which confers power to make regulations as to adjustments in consequence of alteration of boundaries and like matters) with the substitution for the reference therein to the year nineteen hundred and thirty of a reference to the year nineteen hundred and forty-five.

Citation and construction.

4. This Act may be cited as the Local Government (Financial Provisions) (Scotland) Act, 1946, and shall be construed as one with Part III of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929, and the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, 1929 to 1941, and this Act may be cited together as the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, 1929 to 1946.
