

CHAPTER 32.

An Act to reduce the period for which land must have been under grass in order that a ploughing grant may be made in respect thereof. [6th March 1946.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. Part IV of the Agricultural Development Act, 1939 (which relates to the making of ploughing grants) shall, as amended or extended by or under any subsequent enactment, have effect, in relation to the ploughing up of land after the fifth day of February, nineteen hundred and forty-six, as if, for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section twenty-seven of that Act (which paragraph provides that no ploughing grant shall be made unless the appropriate Minister is satisfied that at the time when the ploughing up was begun the land had been under grass for a period of seven years or more) there were substituted the following paragraph—

Extension of power to make ploughing grants.

2 & 3 Geo. 6.
c. 48.

“(b) either that the land had been under grass for a period of at least three consecutive years ending at the time when the ploughing up was begun, or that the land was, at that time, under grass sown in the third calendar year preceding the year in which the ploughing up was begun.”

2. This Act may be cited as the Agricultural Development Short title and (Ploughing Up of Land) Act, 1946, and this Act and the Agri- citation.
cultural Development Acts, 1939 and 1940 may be cited together as the Agricultural Development Acts, 1939 to 1946.