

CHAPTER 56.

An Act to enable the Trustees of the British Museum to lend the Lacock Abbey Magna Carta, for a period not exceeding two years, for public exhibition in the Library of Congress of the United States of America.

[6th June 1946.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) The Trustees of the British Museum may enter into and carry out an agreement with the Librarian of Congress for lending the Lacock Abbey Magna Carta for a period not exceeding two years for public exhibition in the Library of Congress of the United States of America.

Power of Trustees to arrange for exhibition of Magna Carta
in Library of Congress.

(2) The said agreement shall make provision satisfactory to the Trustees as to the measures to be taken for securing the safety of the document lent and as to its return on the expiration of the period of the loan.

(3) In this Act the expression "the Lacock Abbey Magna Carta" means the reissue of Magna Carta made in the ninth year of the reign of King Henry the Third, with an impression of the Great Seal attached thereto, presented to the Trustees of the British Museum by Miss Matilda Theresa Talbot.

2. This Act may be cited as the British Museum Act, 1946.
