

opinion that such advances can be made up to that increased amount without risk of loss to the Exchequer.

(2.) The Lord Lieutenant may certify to the like effect with respect to the limit provided by subsection (2) of section forty-three of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1896, and in such case the Treasury may authorise advances to be made under that section for the benefit of the county mentioned in such certificate to such increased amount as may be determined by them, not exceeding fifty times the share of the county in the interest on the church surplus grant, after making the deductions in the said subsection mentioned, where they are of the same opinion as aforesaid.

(3.) Subsection (1) of section four of the Congested Districts Board (Ireland) Act, 1899 (which extends the limit under section forty-three of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1896), is hereby repealed.

2. This Act may be cited as the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1901.

CHAPTER 4.

An Act to make provision for the honour and dignity of the Crown and the Royal Family, and for the payment of certain allowances and pensions. [2nd July 1901.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to signify to your faithful Commons in Parliament assembled that Your Majesty placed unreservedly at their disposal those hereditary revenues which were so placed by Your predecessor, and that Your Majesty is desirous of making competent provision for the honourable support and maintenance of Your Majesty's Son, the Duke of Cornwall and York, Your Daughter-in-law, the Duchess of Cornwall and York, and Your Daughters, the Princess Louise, Duchess of Fife, the Princess Victoria, and Princess Charles of Denmark, and that Your Majesty is further desirous that similar provision should be made for Her Majesty the Queen in the event of Her surviving Your Majesty, and for the Duchess of Cornwall and York in the event of Her surviving the Duke of Cornwall and York:

Now therefore we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, have freely and voluntarily resolved to make such provision as herein-after appears for the purposes aforesaid, and we do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Payment of hereditary revenues to Exchequer.
1 & 2 Vict. c. 2.

1. The hereditary revenues which were by section two of the Civil List Act, 1837, directed to be carried to and made part of the Consolidated Fund shall, during the present reign and a period of six months afterwards, be paid into the Exchequer, and be made part of the Consolidated Fund.

Annual payment for Civil List.

2. There shall, during the present reign and a period of six months afterwards, be paid for the King's Civil List the yearly sum of four hundred and seventy thousand pounds.

Provision for Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York.

3.—(1.) There shall be paid to His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York during the joint lives of His present Majesty and of His said Royal Highness an annuity of twenty thousand pounds.

(2.) There shall be paid to Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York during the continuance of her marriage with His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York, for her sole and separate use, but without any power of anticipation, an annuity of ten thousand pounds.

(3.) In the event of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York surviving His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York, there shall be paid to her during her life an annuity of thirty thousand pounds.

Provision for His Majesty's daughters.

4.—(1.) There shall be paid to the trustees herein-after mentioned as a provision for the benefit of His Majesty's daughters the annual sum of eighteen thousand pounds during their joint lives, to be reduced on the death of each of the said Princesses by six thousand pounds.

(2.) The persons who are for the time being the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse shall be the Princesses' trustees, and shall be a body corporate by that name, and any act of the trustees may be signified under the hands and seals of the persons who are the trustees for the time being.

(3.) The trustees shall hold the annual sum paid to them under this section in trust for all or any one or more of the daughters of His Majesty, in such shares, at such times, in such manner, and subject to such conditions and powers of revocation (including, if it is thought fit, a condition against alienation) as His present Majesty may, by order countersigned by the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, appoint. Provided that any such appointment may be varied by another order made and countersigned in like manner.

Provision for the Queen in the event of her surviving the King.
Appropriation of Civil List.

5. In the event of Her Majesty Queen Alexandra surviving His Majesty the King, there shall be paid to her during her life an annuity of seventy thousand pounds.

6.—(1.) In the application of the sum paid for the Civil List the amounts mentioned in the second column of the First Schedule to this Act shall be appropriated to the class of expenditure mentioned opposite thereto in the first column of that Schedule.

(2.) If at the end of any calendar year any part of the sum appropriated to any class of expenditure is not required for that class, the Treasury may direct that sum to be applied as an addition to the sum available for any other class.

7. The Treasury may undertake the payment of—

(a) any retired allowances (of a total amount not exceeding twelve thousand pounds) granted by Her late Majesty and paid as part of the expenditure of Class II. of Her Civil List; and

(b) any retired allowances (of a total amount not exceeding thirteen thousand pounds) granted by His present Majesty before the twenty-third day of July nineteen hundred and one to any persons having been in Her late Majesty's service for a longer period than ten years;

and shall keep a register of any allowances the payment of which they so undertake.

Payment of certain retired allowances by Treasury.

8. The sums required under this Act for the Civil List, and for the provision under this Act for Her Majesty the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, and His Majesty's daughters, and for the payment of the retired allowances payable by the Treasury under this Act, and for the payment of Civil List pensions (whether granted before or after the passing of this Act), shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof, and shall be paid at such times and in such manner as the Treasury may direct.

Charge of payments under Act.

9.—(1.) Sections five and six of the Civil List Act, 1837, which relate to Civil List pensions, shall continue to apply during the present reign and a period of six months afterwards, but Civil List pensions shall not be granted as chargeable on the sum paid for the Civil List.

Continuance of enactments, commencement, repeal, and short title.

(2.) The Civil List Audit Act, 1816, and all other enactments relating to the Civil List of Her late Majesty, and not hereby superseded or expressly repealed, shall continue to apply to the Civil List under this Act, and nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or powers for the time being exerciseable with respect to any of the hereditary revenues which are by this Act directed to be paid into the Exchequer.

56 Geo. 3. c. 46.

(3.) The Acts mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that schedule, and the provisions made by this Act shall be in substitution for the provisions made by the enactments so repealed, but the hereditary revenues of excise on beer, ale, and cider, which were suspended by section seven of the Civil List Act, 1837, shall cease to be chargeable.

1 & 2 Vict. c. 2.

(4.) This Act shall take effect as from the last demise of the Crown, and such adjustments and allowances shall be made as may appear to the Treasury necessary for giving effect to this provision during the present year.

(5.) This Act may be cited as the Civil List Act, 1901.
