CHAPTER 28.

An Act to make provision for the honour and dignity of the Crown and the Royal Family, and for the payment of certain allowances and pensions. [3rd August 1910.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to signify to your faithful Commons in Parliament assembled that Your Majesty placed unreservedly at their disposal those hereditary revenues which were so placed by Your predecessor, and that Your Majesty is desirous that competent provision should be made for Her Majesty the Queen in the event of Her surviving Your Majesty, and, in the event of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, for Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and that similar provision should be made for Your Majesty's younger children in the event of their respectively attaining their majority or marrying:

Now therefore we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, have freely and voluntarily resolved to make such provision as herein-after appears for the purposes aforesaid, and we do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The hereditary revenues which were by section one of the Civil List Act, 1901, directed to be carried to and made part of the Consolidated Fund (including the Osborne Estate to which that section was subsequently applied by the Osborne Estate Act, 1902) shall, during the present reign and a period of six months afterwards, be paid into the Exchequer, and be made part of the Consolidated Fund.

Payment of hereditary revenues to Exchequer.
1 Edw. 7. c. 4.

2. There shall, during the present reign and a period of six months afterwards, be paid for the King's Civil List, the yearly sum of four hundred and seventy thousand pounds.

Annual payment for Civil List.

3. In the event of Her Majesty Queen Mary surviving His Majesty the King, there shall be paid to her during her life an annuity of seventy thousand pounds.

Provision for the Queen in the event of her surviving the King.

4.—(1) In the event of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, there shall be paid to Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales during the continuance of her marriage with His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales for her sole and separate use, but without any power of anticipation, an annuity of ten thousand pounds.

Provision for the Princess of Wales in the event of the marriage of the Prince of Wales.

(2) In the event of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales surviving His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, there shall be paid to Her Royal Highness during her life an annuity of thirty thousand pounds.

5.—(1) There shall be paid to the trustees herein-after mentioned as a provision for the benefit of His Majesty's children (other than the Duke of Cornwall for the time being) an annual sum of ten thousand pounds in respect of each son (other than the Duke of Cornwall for the time being) who attains the age of twenty-one years, and a further annual sum of fifteen thousand pounds in respect of each such son who marries, and an annual sum of six thousand pounds in respect of each daughter who attains the age of twenty-one years or marries:

Provision for His Majesty's younger children.

• Provided that the sum payable in respect of any such son or daughter shall cease to be paid in the event of the death of that son or daughter.

(2) The persons who are for the time being the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse shall be the Royal trustees, and shall be a body corporate by that name, and any act of the trustees may be signified under the hands and seals of the persons who are the trustees for the time being.

(3) The trustees shall hold the annual sums paid to them under this section, in trust for all or any one or more of the children of His Majesty (other than the Duke of Cornwall for the time being), in such shares, at such times, in such manner, and subject to such conditions and powers of revocation (including, if it is thought fit, a condition against alienation) as His present Majesty may by order countersigned by the First Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, appoint:

Provided that any such appointment may be varied by another order made and countersigned in like manner.

Appropriation of Civil List.

6.—(1) In the application of the sum paid for the Civil List, the amounts mentioned in the second column of the schedule to this Act shall be appropriated to the class of expenditure mentioned opposite thereto in the first column of that schedule.

(2) If, at the end of any calendar year, the sum appropriated to any class of expenditure (other than Class IV.) is not wholly required for expenditure of that class in that year, the Treasury may direct that the amount not required be applied as an addition to the sum available for any other class.

(3) If, at the end of any calendar year, the sum appropriated to the expenditure of Class IV. is not wholly required for the expenditure of that class in that year, the amount not required shall be set aside and accumulated for the purpose of future expenditure of that class in such manner as the Treasury direct.

Payments by Treasury in respect of retired allowances.

7.—(1) The Treasury may undertake the payment of any retired allowances granted by His late Majesty and paid as part of the expenditure under Class II. of His Civil List.

(2) The Treasury may also, in the case of any retired allowance which may be granted by His present Majesty to persons who have been for a longer period than ten years in the Royal service under Her Majesty Queen Victoria or His late Majesty, undertake the payment of any part of that allowance which is in their opinion attributable to that service.

(3) The amount paid by the Treasury in respect of payments undertaken under this section shall not exceed the sum of eighteen thousand pounds in any year.

(4) The Treasury shall keep a register of all allowances which are paid by them either in whole or in part under this section.

Charge of payments
under Act.

8. The sums required under this Act for the Civil List, and for the provision under this Act for Her Majesty the Queen, and, in the event of the marriage of the Prince of Wales, for Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and for His Majesty's younger children, and for the payment of the retired allowances payable by the Treasury under this Act, and for the payment of Civil List pensions (whether granted before or after the passing of this Act), shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof, and shall be paid at such times and in such manner as the Treasury may direct.

9.—(1) Sections five and six of the Civil List Act, 1837, which relate to Civil List pensions, shall continue to apply during the present reign and a period of six months afterwards, but Civil List pensions shall not be granted as chargeable on the sum paid for the Civil List.

Continuance of enactments, commencement, repeal,
and short title.

1 Vict. c. 2.

56 Geo. 3. c. 46.

(2) The Civil List Audit Act, 1816, and all other enactments relating to the Civil List of His late Majesty, and not hereby superseded or expressly repealed, shall continue to apply to the Civil List under this Act, and nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or powers for the time being exerciseable with respect to any of the hereditary revenues which are by this Act directed to be paid into the Exchequer.

(3) Sections one, two, three, and six, and section nine (with the exception of subsection (5)), of the Civil List Act, 1901 and subsection (2) of section one of the Osborne Estate Act, 1902, are hereby repealed, and the provisions made by this Act shall be in substitution for the provisions made by the enactments hereby repealed.

1 Edw. 7. c. 4.

2 Edw. 7. c. 37.

(4) This Act shall take effect as from the last demise of the Crown, and such adjustments and allowances shall be made as may appear to the Treasury necessary for giving effect to this provision during the present year.

(5) This Act may be cited as the Civil List Act, 1910.
