

Substitution of seal for signature of Registrar
General for Scotland.
17 & 18 Vict.
c. 80.

1. So much of section fifty-eight of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act, 1854, as requires extracts of entries which shall be admissible as evidence to be signed by the Registrar General if such extracts shall be from the registers kept at the General Registry Office, shall cease to have effect, and in lieu thereof it is hereby provided that the Registrar General shall cause to be made a seal of the said General Registry Office, and the Registrar General shall cause to be sealed or stamped therewith all extracts of entries given in the said office; and all extracts of entries purporting to be sealed or stamped with the seal of the said General Registry Office shall be deemed to be duly authenticated by the Registrar General, and the provisions of the said section shall apply thereto as fully as if such authenticated extracts were signed by the Registrar General.

Short title,
construction,
and commencement.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1910, and may be cited with the Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Acts, 1854 to 1860, and this Act and the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act, 1854, shall be construed as one Act.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on the expiration of three months from the passing thereof.

CHAPTER 33.

An Act to remove certain Disabilities and Restrictions attaching to Hotels and Restaurants in the Police District of Dublin Metropolis. [3rd August 1910.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Hotels and Restaurants (Dublin) Act, 1910.

Divisional
justices may grant orders
exempting
from provisions relating to closing during certain hours.

2.—(1) If the holder of a licence for any hotel or restaurant within the police district of Dublin metropolis applies to a divisional justice for that district for an order exempting him on any special occasion from the provisions of the Licensing Acts relating to the closing of premises, it shall be lawful for the divisional justice, if he in his discretion thinks fit so to do, to grant the applicant such an order, upon such conditions as he thinks proper, exempting him during the hours and on the special occasion to be specified in the order, and the holder of any such licence to whom an order has been granted under this Act shall not, if and so long as he complies with the conditions upon which the order has been granted, be subject to any penalty for the contravention of the provisions of the Licensing Acts relating to the closing of premises during the time to which the order extends, but he shall not be exempted by any such order from any penalty to which he may be subject by any other provisions of those Acts or by any other Act.

(2) An order granted with respect to any Saturday shall not extend beyond twelve o'clock on Saturday night.

(3) Section sixty-four of the Licensing Act, 1872, which relates to the production of licences and penalties for non-production, shall apply to all orders granted under this Act. 35 & 36 Vict.
c. 94.

(4) In this section the expression "Licensing Acts" means the Licensing (Ireland) Acts, 1833 to 1905, and the Intoxicating Liquors (Ireland) Act, 1906. 6 Edw. 7, c. 39.

3. An order shall not be granted under this Act unless the applicant has, not less than twenty-four hours before making the application, served upon the superintendent of police for the division in which the hotel or restaurant is situated, a notice of his intention to apply for the order, setting out his name and address, and the place, occasion, and time for which the order is sought. Notice to police authority.
