1. The Provisional Order as amended and set out in the schedule to this Act shall be and the same is hereby confirmed and all the provisions thereof in manner and form as they are set out in the said schedule shall from and after the passing of this Act have full validity and force.

Confirmation of Order in schedule.

2. This Act may be cited as the Port of London (Port Rates on Goods) Provisional Order Act 1910. Short title.

A.D. 1910.

SCHEDULE.

PORT OF LONDON (PORT RATES ON GOODS).

Provisional Order pursuant to Section 13 of the Port of London Act 1908 embodying the Schedule of Maximum Port Rates on Goods which may be levied by the Port of London Authority.

Short title. 1. This Order may be cited as the Port of London (Port Rates on Goods) Order 1910.

Commencement of Order. 2. This Order shall come into force and have effect on a day to be fixed by the Board of Trade not being more than thirteen weeks from the date of the confirmation of this Order.

Definition. 3. Expressions defined in the Port of London Act 1908 shall unless the context otherwise requires have the same meanings in this Order.

Power to levy
port rates. 4. Subject to the provisions of this Order and to any exemptions or rebates allowed by the Port of London Authority (in this Order referred to as "the Authority") under section 13 of the Port of London Act 1908 the Authority may demand and take in respect of all goods imported from parts beyond the seas or coastwise into the Port of London or exported to parts beyond the seas or coastwise from that Port port rates not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule to this Order:

Provided that no port rates shall be charged by the Authority on fish caught in the open sea and brought in a fresh condition into the Port of London direct from the fishing grounds or direct from any port in the United Kingdom where the fish has been landed for the sole purpose of sale packing and transhipment direct to the Port of London.

As to import rates on raw materials and manufactured goods
&c. 5. In fixing from time to time the port rates to be levied under this Order and any exemptions and rebates allowed by the Authority in respect thereof the Authority shall endeavour so far as they consider practicable to adjust the same so as to ensure that the import rates on the materials used in the manufacture of any article shall not be more than the import rates on a like manufactured article imported from parts beyond the seas and that an unfair proportion of the burden of port rates is not thrown upon the river trade having regard to the circumstances of the Port at the time,

6. The port rates charged on goods exported to parts beyond the seas shall not exceed one half of the port rates for the time being actually charged on similar goods imported from parts beyond the seas. A.D. 1910.
Maximum rates on oversea exports.

7.—(1) The port rates charged on goods (other than coal culm patent fuel coke coal dust and cinders) imported coastwise shall not exceed one half of the port rates for the time being actually charged on similar goods imported from parts beyond the seas. Maximum port rates on
goods.

(2) The port rates charged on goods (other than coal culm patent fuel coke coal dust and cinders) exported coastwise shall not exceed one half of the port rates for the time being actually charged on similar goods either imported coastwise or exported to parts beyond the seas whichever rate may be the lower.

(3) The port rates charged on coal culm patent fuel coke coal dust and cinders respectively exported coastwise shall not exceed one half of the port rates for the time being actually charged on coal culm patent fuel coke coal dust and cinders respectively imported coastwise.

(4) In this section only references to import and export coastwise shall be deemed to include references to import from and export to respectively the Isle of Man and the islands of Guernsey Jersey Alderney and Sark.

8. No port rates shall be charged for bunker coal for steamer's own use on board any steamer entering or leaving the port and the Authority shall repay any port rates paid on coal imported which shall be used for the purpose of bunkering steamers proceeding beyond the limits of the Port of London. Exemption of bunker coal.

9. No port rates shall be charged by the Authority on transhipment goods which expression wherever used in this Order means and includes goods imported for transhipment only and also goods which remain on board the vessel in which they were imported for conveyance therein to another port. Exemption of transhipment
goods.

For the purposes of this section the expression "goods imported for transhipment only" shall mean goods imported from beyond the seas or coastwise for the purpose of being conveyed by sea only to any other port whether beyond the seas or coastwise which are certified and proved within the period and in manner herein-after provided (1) to have been intended for transhipment at or before the time of the report of the ship at the Custom House or within seventy-two hours thereafter excluding Sundays and holidays and (2) to have been shipped again as soon as practicable within the limits of the Port of London for conveyance by sea to such other port Every such certificate as afore-said shall be under the hand of the owner of the goods (which

[Ch. c.] Port of London (Port Rates on Goods) [10 EDW. 7 & Provisional Order Act, 1910. 1 GEO. 5.]

A.D. 1910. expression whenever used in this Order shall include the shipper and consignee of the goods and any person shipping or taking delivery of the goods on behalf of the owner shipper or consignee) or under the hand of a forwarding agent or of any other agent acting on behalf of the owner of the goods or under the hand of the owner master managers or agents of the importing or exporting vessel and shall be in such form as the Authority may from time to time require. The certificate stating that the goods have been intended for transshipment shall contain particulars of the description quantity destination route and mode of conveyance of such goods and shall be delivered to the collector (which expression as used in this Order means any collector or officer for the time being authorised by the Authority to collect port rates on goods) within seven days from the arrival of the goods or such further period as shall from time to time be appointed by the Authority. The certificate stating that the goods have been shipped again as soon as practicable as aforesaid shall contain such particulars as the Authority shall require and shall be delivered to the collector at or immediately after the time of shipment. The owner of any such goods as aforesaid shall at all times give such other information and evidence as may reasonably be required by the Authority or their agent in order to prove that such goods were intended for transshipment or have been shipped again as soon as practicable as aforesaid as the case may be.

Further exemptions or rebates.

10. Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to limit or affect the right of the Authority to allow any further or other exemptions or rebates which may lawfully be allowed by them under the provisions of the Port of London Act 1908 and the Authority shall on being satisfied that such further or other exemptions or rebates are necessary to protect the waterborne trade or the entrepôt trade or any other trade of the Port of London make such further exemptions or rebates as are necessary for the purpose.

Classification of unspecified goods.

11. Any goods not specified in the schedule to this Order shall for the purpose of payment of port rates be classed by the Authority under the same head as the goods specified in the said schedule which shall in the opinion of the Authority be most similar thereto in nature value and quality and the rate for the time being chargeable for such last-mentioned goods shall accordingly be chargeable by the Authority in respect of the goods first-mentioned and all necessary additions shall be made to the lists of port rates from time to time published by the Authority pursuant to section 39 hereof. Provided always that any person aggrieved by any such classification as aforesaid may at any time appeal in writing to the Board of Trade against the same and the Board of Trade may make such order on any such appeal as to the maximum port rates which shall thereafter be chargeable in respect of the goods to which such classification relates as they may think fair and reasonable and such order shall be final. A.D. 1910. —

12. Port rates on goods shall be paid by the owner of the goods in respect of which such rates are payable or the person by whom the entry of the goods at the Custom House is made and shall be collected and recovered by the Authority and for the purpose of the collection and recovery of such rates by the Authority the following provisions shall have effect. Persons acting in good faith not liable to penalties.

27. Nothing herein contained shall render the master owner charterer chartered owner consignee broker or agent of a vessel or wharfinger liable to penalties under this Order in respect of any act or default where it shall be proved that he has acted in good faith and with reasonable care in reliance upon information furnished to him by the owner of the goods to which such act or default shall relate or by any person whom he shall reasonably have supposed to represent such owner as broker or agent.

Agreement with Customs and Excise.

28. The Authority on the one hand and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise on the other hand may from time to time enter into carry into effect vary and rescind agreements and arrangements with respect to the collection and recovery of port rates on goods and any matters incidental thereto Provided always that no such agreement or arrangement shall infringe the provisions of section 13 of the Port of London Act 1908.

Wharf weights and measurements to be accepted.

29. Subject to the provisions of section 19 of this Order in the case of goods landed or warehoused with wharfingers the wharf weights and measurements taken in the customary manner shall be accepted by the Authority for the purposes of the port rates on goods or arrangements shall be made for the Authority to check weights or measurements of such goods at the wharf premises. A.D. 1910.

[10 EDW. 7 & Port of London (Port Rates on Goods) [Ch. c.]
1 GEO. 5.] Provisional Order Act, 1910.

30. In the event of the owner of any goods liable to pay any port rates to which those goods are subject not having paid or given security for payment of those rates by the following times viz.:—

Owner or master of vessel may pay port rates.

(1) In the case of goods other than coastwise goods—

(a) if a time for the delivery of the goods is expressed in the charter party bill of lading or agreement then by the time so expressed;

(b) if no time for the delivery of the goods is expressed in the charter party bill of lading or agreement then by the expiration of seventy-two hours exclusive of a Sunday or holiday from the time of the report of the ship;

(2) In the case of coastwise goods when the same are ready to be discharged;

the owner or master of the vessel in which the goods are carried may himself pay such rates and thereupon shall have a lien on the goods and all the rights powers and liabilities in respect of the same that he would have under Part VII. of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894 in respect of unpaid freight or other charges and for this purpose the provisions of the said Part VII. shall be deemed to apply to all goods imported by sea into the Port of London.

31. Where goods are to be delivered to a public wharfinger or carrier he may pay the port rates to which they are liable on behalf of the owner or consignee of the goods and thereupon shall have the like lien on the goods as he would have in respect of charges for the safe custody or carriage of the goods.

Public wharfinger or carrier may pay port rates.

32. The Authority may make special arrangements respecting the time and method of payment of port rates on goods by any persons who at frequent intervals become liable to pay such rates whether on their own account or on account of any other person.

Special arrangements for time and method of payment of port rates.

33. The Authority may enter into agreements with any shipowner wharfinger or carrier providing that such shipowner wharfinger or carrier shall collect for and on behalf of the Authority the port rates on goods imported or exported in his vessel or to be landed or shipped by him as the case may be and may agree to pay to such shipowner wharfinger or carrier a collecting commission.

Agreements with shipowner or wharfinger for collection of port rates.

In case such shipowner wharfinger or carrier shall pay to the Authority any such rates before he has collected the same from the owner of the goods he shall possess the like rights and remedies for the recovery of such rates as are conferred by sections 30 and 31 respectively of this Order.

A.D. 1910.

Authority to permit goods to be discharged upon receiving security.

34. Notwithstanding anything in this Order contained the Authority shall in all cases permit goods to be discharged and delivered or shipped as the case may be upon receiving security to the satisfaction of the Authority by bond or such other security as the Authority may approve for the payment of the port rates thereon notwithstanding that such port rates have not been paid and upon such security being given by the owner or master of a vessel or wharfinger or carrier he shall have a lien on the goods for the amount of the port rates thereon and shall possess the like rights and remedies for the recovery of such rates as are conferred by sections 30 and 31 respectively of this Order.

Claims for repayment of port rates.

35. Any person claiming the return of the whole or any part of any moneys paid in respect of any port rates on goods shall make such claim and produce all documents and give all information reasonably required in proof of such claim within twelve months from the time of the entry of such goods and in default thereof the whole sum paid shall belong to the Authority.

Saving for Government stores.

36. Nothing in this Order contained shall affect any Act of Parliament relating to His Majesty's duties of Customs and Excise or any other revenue of the Crown or shall extend to charge with port rates any mail bag as defined by the Post Office Act 1908 or any naval victualling or War Department stores or other stores or goods for the service or being the property of His Majesty or goods being under seizure by the officers of revenue or the baggage of any officers or persons employed in the service of the Admiralty War Department Customs and Excise or Post Office or of any troops landed upon or disembarked from any quay within the Port of London.

Saving for Rivers Medway and Swale.

37. Nothing in this Order contained shall be construed as imposing any port rates on any goods carried in any vessel by reason only that the vessel passes through any part of the Port of London on a voyage between places situate on the River Medway or the River Swale and not within the Port of London and any other places not within that Port.

Recovery of penalties.

38. All offences under this Order made punishable by any penalty may be prosecuted under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts. The court imposing any penalty under this Order may direct that the whole or any part thereof be applied in or towards the payment of the costs of the proceedings or in or towards the rewarding of the person on whose information or at whose suit the penalty is recovered and subject to any such direction all penalties under this Order shall be paid into the Exchequer.

Publication of list of port rates.

39. A list of the port rates for the time being payable shall be open during all reasonable hours to the inspection of any person without payment of any fee at the principal office or any of the A.D. 1910.

collecting offices of the Authority and copies of such list as revised from time to time shall be kept on sale at all such offices of the Authority at a price not exceeding one shilling for each copy For the purpose of calculating the amount of any port rate payable under the provisions of this Order the rate set over against any article in the said list shall be deemed to be the rate actually charged in respect thereof.

40. All the costs charges and expenses of and incident to the Costs of preparing obtaining and confirming of this Order or otherwise in Order.
relation thereto shall be paid by the Authority.
