

or sums not exceeding in the whole two hundred and two million one hundred and twenty-one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven pounds four shillings.

(2) The date of payment of any Treasury Bills issued under this section shall be a date not later than the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and section six of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877 (which relates to the renewal of bills), shall not apply with respect to those bills. 40 & 41 Vict.
c. 2.

(3) Any money borrowed otherwise than on Treasury Bills shall be repaid, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund, at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the money was borrowed.

(4) Any money borrowed under this section shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such Fund is available.

(5) The interest on any money borrowed under this section shall be paid out of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt.

4. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund Short title. (No. 1) Act, 1932.

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to amend the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1925, so far as is necessary to enable effect to be given to a Convention signed at Geneva on behalf of His Majesty on the thirteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and to make provision for the extension of those Acts to drugs capable of being converted into dangerous drugs. [24th March 1932.]

WHEREAS at a Conference held at Geneva for the purpose of supplementing the provisions of the International Opium Convention signed at The Hague on the twenty-third day of January, nineteen hundred and twelve (hereinafter referred to as "The Hague Convention") and the International Opium Convention signed at Geneva on the nineteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, (hereinafter referred to as "the Geneva Convention (No. 1)"), a convention for the purpose aforesaid (hereinafter referred to as "the Geneva Convention (No. 2)") was signed on behalf of His Majesty on the thirteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-one :

And whereas by Article 11 of the Geneva Convention (No. 2) it is provided that (a) in the event of the Health Committee of the League of Nations, after consulting the Permanent Committee of the Office International d'Hygiene Publique in Paris, deciding that any product obtained from any of the phenanthrene alkaloids of opium or from the ecgonine alkaloids of the coca leaf, not being a product which was on the thirteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, being used for medical or scientific purposes, is, or can be converted into, a drug capable of producing addiction, the Health Committee shall notify the Secretary-General of the League of Nations of their decision; and (b) the said Secretary-General shall communicate the decision to the parties to the Convention and thereupon the parties to the Convention shall apply to that product the measures of control specified in the Convention :

And whereas the Geneva Convention (No. 2) contains certain other provisions to which effect cannot be given in the United Kingdom unless the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1925, are further amended :

And whereas by Article 30 of the Geneva Convention (No. 2) it is provided that that Convention shall not come into force until ninety days after the said Secretary-General has received the number of ratifications or accessions therein specified :

And whereas it is expedient to amend the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1925, so far as is necessary to enable effect to be given to the Geneva Convention (No. 2) :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) The following shall be substituted for subsection (1) of section eight of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920 (in this Act referred to as “ the principal Act ”):—

Amendment of s. 8 of 10 & 11
Geo. 5.
c. 46.

“(1) The drugs to which this Part of this Act applies are—

- (a) medicinal opium ;
- (b) any extract or tincture of Indian hemp ;
- (c) morphine and its salts, and diacetylmorphine (commonly known as diamorphine or heroin) and the other esters of morphine and their respective salts ;
- (d) cocaine (including synthetic cocaine) and ecgonine and their respective salts, and the esters of ecgonine and their respective salts ;
- (e) any solution or dilution of morphine or cocaine or their salts in an inert substance whether liquid or solid, containing any proportion of morphine or cocaine, and any preparation, admixture, extract or other substance (not being such a solution or dilution as aforesaid) containing not less than one-fifth per cent. of morphine or one-tenth per cent. of cocaine or of ecgonine ;
- (f) any preparation, admixture, extract or other substance containing any proportion of diacetylmorphine ;
- (g) dihydrohydroxycodeinone, dihydrocodeinone, dihydromorphinone, acetyldihydrocodeinone, dihydromorphine, their esters and the salts of any of these substances and of their esters, morphine-N-oxide (commonly known as genomorphine), the morphine-N-oxide derivatives, and any other pentavalent nitrogen morphine derivatives ;
- (h) thebaine and its salts, and (with the exception of methylmorphine, commonly known as codeine, and ethylmorphine, commonly known as dionin, and their respective salts) benzylmorphine and the other ethers of morphine and their respective salts;

- (i) any preparation, admixture, extract or other substance containing any proportion of any of the substances mentioned in paragraph (g) or in paragraph (h) of this subsection."

For the purpose of the foregoing provision the expression "ecgonine" means laevo-ecgonine and includes any derivatives of ecgonine from which it may be recovered industrially, and the percentage in the case of morphine shall be calculated as in respect of anhydrous morphine.

(2) Subsection (2) of section eight of the principal Act (which empowers His Majesty to declare that Part III of that Act shall apply to certain new derivatives) shall be amended by the insertion after the words "if improperly used" of the words "or is capable of being converted into a substance which is, or is likely to be productive, if improperly used."

Prohibition of trade, &c. in new drugs, and power to apply Part III of principal Act with or without modifications to certain drugs.

2.—(1) It shall not be lawful for any person in the United Kingdom to trade in or manufacture for the purpose of trade any products obtained from any of the phenanthrene alkaloids of opium or from the ecgonine alkaloids of the coca leaf, not being a product which was on the thirteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, being used for medical or scientific purposes:

Provided that if His Majesty is at any time satisfied as respects any such product that it is of medical or scientific value, he may by Order in Council direct that this subsection shall cease to apply to that product.

If any person acts in contravention of this subsection, he shall be guilty of an offence against the principal Act.

(2) If it is made to appear to His Majesty that a decision with respect to any such product as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section has in pursuance of Article 11 of the Geneva Convention (No. 2) been communicated by the Secretary-General of the League of Nations to the parties to the said Convention, His Majesty, by Order in Council, may, as the case requires, either declare that the provisions of the said Part III shall apply to that product in the same manner as they apply to the drugs mentioned in subsection (1) of section eight of the principal Act as amended by this Act or apply the said Part III to that product with such modifications as may be specified in the Order.

(3) His Majesty may by Order in Council apply Part III of the principal Act, with such modifications as may be specified in the Order, to any of the following drugs, that is to say, methylmorphine (commonly known as codeine), ethylmorphine (commonly known as dionin) and their respective salts.

3. Subsection (2) of section six of the Dangerous Drugs and Poisons (Amendment) Act, 1923 (which defines the expression "corresponding law"), shall have effect as though the reference therein to the provisions of the Hague Convention included a reference to the provisions of the Geneva Convention (No. 1) and the Geneva Convention (No. 2).

Amendment of s. 6 (2) of Dangerous Drugs and Poisons (Amendment) Act, 1923. 13 & 14 Geo. 5. c. 5.

4. An Order or Declaration made by His Majesty in Council under the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1932, may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Order or Declaration made in the like manner and subject to the like provisions.

Power to alter or revoke Orders or Declarations in Council.

5.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932, and the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1925, and this Act may be cited together as the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1932.

Short title, extent, commencement and repeal.

(2) This Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland except in so far as it amends the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1925, in relation to matters with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland have not power to make laws.

(3) This Act shall come into operation on such date as His Majesty may by Order in Council appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act and in relation to different countries.

(4) Section three and section six of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1925, are hereby repealed.

15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 74.
