

CHAPTER lxxxv.

An Act to transfer to the Metropolitan Water Board communication pipes or parts thereof under streets to confer various powers upon the said Board and for other purposes. [12th July 1932.] A.D. 1932.
—

WHEREAS the Metropolitan Water Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") were established by the Metropolis Water Act 1902 and are by virtue of that Act and subsequent Acts charged with the duty of supplying water within an area which comprises the whole of the county of London and parts of the counties of Middlesex Surrey Kent Essex and Hertford :

And whereas under the Acts relating to the Board persons requiring a supply of water to be furnished by the Board for any purpose are required to provide lay down and maintain the communication pipes and other necessary and proper apparatus for the purposes of such supply :

And whereas it is expedient that as from the date specified in that behalf in this Act communication pipes and apparatus laid down at that date together with the liability for the maintenance repair and renewal thereof should to the extent mentioned in this Act be transferred to the Board and that the Board should be exclusively entitled to provide lay down maintain repair and renew to the extent also so mentioned the communication pipes and apparatus for the purposes of supplies of water which the Board are required on or after that date to furnish :

[Ch. lxxxv.] Metropolitan Water [22 & 23 GEO. 5.]
Board Act, 1932.

A.D. 1932.
—

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions contained in this Act with reference to the prevention of the waste of water should be made :

And whereas it is expedient that the Board should be empowered to stop up the footpath in the metropolitan boroughs of Greenwich and Deptford which is referred to in this Act :

And whereas under powers conferred by the Metropolitan Water Board (Various Powers) Act 1907 the Board have established a superannuation and provident fund for their officers and servants and have approved and from time to time amended and revised a scheme for the establishment management and maintenance of the said fund :

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions contained in this Act for enabling the Board further to amend the said scheme should be enacted :

And whereas it is expedient that such other powers and provisions as are contained in this Act should be conferred and enacted :

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

And whereas a plan showing the footpath in the metropolitan boroughs of Greenwich and Deptford to be stopped up under the powers of this Act and a book of reference to such plan containing the names of the owners or reputed owners and the occupiers of the lands forming the site of such footpath have been deposited with the clerk of the county council of the administrative county of London and that plan is in this Act referred to as the deposited plan :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say) :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Metropolitan Water Board Act 1932.

2. In this Act unless the subject or context otherwise requires— A.D. 1932.

“The Board” means the Metropolitan Water Board; Interpretation.

“The Charges Act of 1907” means the Metropolitan Water Board (Charges) Act 1907;

“The Various Powers Act of 1907” means the Metropolitan Water Board (Various Powers) Act 1907;

“The Charges Act of 1921” means the Metropolitan Water Board (Charges) Act 1921;

“The Act of 1927” means the Metropolitan Water Board Act 1927;

“The water fund” means the water fund established by the Board under the Metropolis Water Act 1902;

“The limits of supply” means the limits within which the Board are for the time being authorised to supply water;

“Street” except where used in this section and in the sections of this Act of which the marginal notes are respectively “Transfer of communication pipes to the Board” and “As to communication pipes for supplies required after appointed day” means—

(a) any square court alley highway lane road thoroughfare or passage within the limits of supply; or

(b) any place within those limits laid out for any such purpose;

(whether the same be or be not dedicated to public use) and where used in the said sections means a street as hereinbefore defined in which a service main of the Board is for the time being laid;

“Service pipe” means so much of any pipe for conveying water from a service main of the Board to any house building or premises as is subject to water pressure from such main;

“Stopcock” means—

(a) except where used in the section of this Act of which the marginal note is “Byelaws for

[Ch. lxxxv.] Metropolitan Water [22 & 23 GEO. 5.]
Board Act, 1932.

A.D. 1932.

preventing waste of water" a stopcock which is fitted on a service pipe and every part of which is situate in a street; and

(b) where used in the said section a stopcock whether fitted on a service pipe or not so fitted and wherever situate;

"Communication pipe" means so much of any service pipe as extends from a service main of the Board to—

(a) the stopcock (if any) fitted on such pipe; or

(b) where a stopcock is not fitted on such pipe the point at which such pipe passes the boundary of the street or the point at which such pipe enters any premises in or under the street whichever of those points is the nearer to the service main;

as the case may be and includes the ferrule at the junction of such pipe with such service main and any such stopcock together with the box (if any) containing the same and any cover to such box;

"Supply pipe" means so much of any service pipe as is not a communication pipe;

"The appointed day" means the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three;

"The date of transfer" means—

(a) in relation to any service pipe laid down before the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one; and

(b) in relation to any service pipe laid down or to be laid down on or after the said first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and before the appointed day on which a stopcock is fitted on or before the last-mentioned day;

the appointed day; and

(c) in relation to any service pipe laid down or to be laid down on or after the said first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and before the appointed day on which a stopcock is not fitted on or before A.D. 1932.

the last-mentioned day; —

the date (if any) after the appointed day on which a stopcock is fitted on such service pipe;

“Consumer” means in relation to any supply of water which the Board are required to furnish the person entitled to require and requiring that supply.

3. As on and from the date of transfer so much of every service pipe existing at that date as constitutes at that date a communication pipe shall by virtue of this Act be transferred to and belong to the Board and the rights and obligations of the Board with reference to the maintenance repair renewal and removal of pipes laid down by them shall extend and apply to all communication pipes so transferred to them as if such communication pipes had been laid down by the Board:

Transfer of communication pipes to the Board.

Provided that if at any time after the date of transfer a stopcock is fitted on a communication pipe so transferred to the Board on which a stopcock was not fitted on or before that date the foregoing provisions of this section shall as from the date of such fitting cease to apply to so much of such communication pipe as lies between the stopcock and—

(a) the boundary of the street; or

(b) the point at which the service pipe enters any premises in or under the street;

whichever is the nearer to the service main with which such communication pipe is connected and on and from the last-mentioned date that portion of such communication pipe shall by virtue of this Act be transferred from the Board to and belong to the person in whom the supply pipe connected with such communication pipe was immediately before that date vested and shall for all purposes (including the maintenance repair renewal and removal thereof) become part of such supply pipe as if the said stopcock had been fitted at the date of transfer.

4.—(1) For the purposes of any supply of water which the Board shall be required on or after the appointed day to furnish for any purpose the Board shall notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act relating to them have the exclusive right to provide and lay down and shall (at the request of a consumer who has

As to communication pipes for supplies required after appointed day.

A.D. 1932. — laid the supply pipe and paid or tendered the water rate or portion of water rate payable in respect of the premises to be supplied) provide and lay down with all reasonable dispatch the communication pipe with any other necessary and proper apparatus including a stop-cock with a suitable box and cover. Provided that if the Board so require the consumer shall deposit with the Board before they commence to lay down such communication pipe and apparatus such a sum as the Board may deem reasonably necessary to meet the expense of providing and laying down the same.

(2) The cost incurred by the Board in providing and laying down any such communication pipe and apparatus as aforesaid shall be borne by the consumer and the amount of such cost or so much (if any) thereof as shall not be covered by any sum deposited with the Board as aforesaid (as the case may be) shall upon the completion of the laying down of such communication pipe and apparatus be repaid to the Board by the consumer and shall be recoverable by the Board in the like manner as the water rate payable in respect of the premises supplied or to be supplied is recoverable.

(3) All communication pipes (with any such apparatus as aforesaid) provided and laid down by the Board in accordance with the provisions of this section shall belong to the Board and the rights and obligations of the Board with reference to the maintenance repair renewal and removal of pipes laid down by them shall extend and apply to such communication pipes and apparatus.

Provisions where separate pipes are substituted for single pipes supplying several houses &c.

5. In any case in which pursuant to section 64 (Board not bound to supply several houses by one pipe) of the Various Powers Act of 1907 as amended by this Act the Board at any time after the appointed day require that a separate pipe be laid from the main pipe into each of two or more houses or buildings theretofore supplied by them with water by means of a single pipe the provisions of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "As to communication pipes for supplies required after appointed day" shall apply to the provision and laying down of so much of each of such separate pipes as constitutes a communication pipe as if such houses or buildings had not theretofore been supplied with water by the Board and the several occupiers thereof had on the date on which the Board make their said requirement required the Board to furnish to them respectively a supply of water: A.D. 1932.

—

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the operation of the proviso to the said section 64.

6. On and from the appointed day the powers and obligations of the Board with reference to the opening breaking up and reinstatement of streets whether within or beyond the limits of supply for the purpose of laying pipes shall extend and apply to the laying down maintaining repairing renewing and removing by them of communication pipes and other apparatus under the provisions of this Act. Extension of powers of Board of breaking up streets.

7. On and from the appointed day the powers of laying pipes conferred by sections 48 to 52 of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 and the provisions of those sections with reference to such pipes shall within the limits of supply apply to the supply pipe for any supply of water which the Board shall be required on or after that day to furnish for any purpose. Certain provisions of Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 to apply to supply pipes.

8.—(1) For the purpose of complying with any obligation under this Act or the Charges Act of 1907 or the Charges Act of 1921 to maintain repair or renew any service pipe or supply pipe or any apparatus fitted thereon the person for the time being liable to maintain the same shall have the like power to open the ground and to open or break up the pavement of any street as is conferred upon him by sections 48 to 52 of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 in relation to the laying of such pipes as are referred to in those sections. As to breaking up ground for maintaining supply pipes and laying down &c. communication pipes.

(2) As from the appointed day no person other than the Board shall be entitled to open or break up any street for laying down any communication pipe or any apparatus fitted thereon or for maintaining repairing renewing or removing any communication pipe transferred by this Act to or laid down by the Board or any apparatus fitted on any such communication pipe:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall affect the provisions of section 98 of the Metropolis Management Act 1855 or of section 153 of the Public Health Act 1875.

(3) Section 19 (As to breaking up ground for maintaining communication pipes) of the Charges Act of 1907 is hereby repealed.

A.D. 1932.

Maintenance of communication pipes and supply pipes.

9.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act—

(a) the person who immediately before the date of transfer was responsible for the maintenance repair and renewal of or entitled to remove any service pipe shall as on and from that date cease to be responsible for the maintenance repair or renewal of or to be entitled to remove so much of such pipe as constitutes a communication pipe transferred to the Board by virtue of this Act; and

(b) no person other than the Board shall be responsible for the maintenance repair renewal or removal of so much of any service pipe as constitutes a communication pipe transferred to the Board as aforesaid or laid down by the Board pursuant to this Act.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall alter or affect any right or obligation of any person—

(a) before the appointed day to provide lay down maintain repair renew or remove any service pipe; or

(b) on and after the appointed day to provide lay down maintain repair renew or remove any supply pipe; or

(c) in the case of any service pipe laid down or to be laid down on or after the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and before the appointed day on which a stopcock is not fitted at the time of such laying down—

(i) to maintain repair renew or remove the whole of such service pipe until a stopcock is fitted thereon; or

(ii) after the date of the fitting of a stopcock on such service pipe to maintain repair renew or remove so much of such service pipe as by virtue of such fitting becomes a supply pipe; or

(d) to open the ground or open or break up the pavement of any street for any such purpose as aforesaid;

which would have existed if this Act had not been passed.

10.—(1) Any stopcock fitted on a service pipe or communication pipe at any time after the appointed day shall be placed as near as reasonably practicable to the point at which such pipe passes the boundary of the street or the point at which such pipe enters any premises in or under the street whichever of those points is the nearer to the service main. A.D. 1932.
—
As to stopcocks.

(2) The box containing any such stopcock shall not be larger than is reasonably necessary.

11.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in any Act relating to the Board the Board shall have the exclusive right of executing any works— Board to make connections with service mains or communication pipes.

(a) on any service main of the Board for connecting therewith any service pipe laid down after the passing of this Act and before the appointed day; or

(b) on any communication pipe for connecting therewith any supply pipe laid down on or after the appointed day;

and on the request of the consumer the Board shall (subject to the provisions so far as applicable of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 with respect to the breaking up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes) execute on any such service main or on any communication pipe (as the case may be) any work and supply all fittings and materials which shall be necessary to connect therewith the service pipe or supply pipe of such consumer.

(2) (a) Any expenses incurred by the Board under this section shall be repaid to them by the consumer and shall be recoverable by the Board in the like manner as the water rate payable in respect of the premises supplied is recoverable.

(b) The Board shall not be under any obligation to supply or continue to supply water by means of any such service pipe or supply pipe until all sums payable to them by the consumer in respect thereof pursuant to this subsection shall have been paid to them.

12. On and from the appointed day—

(a) the following enactments shall be read and have effect as if references to supply pipes were contained therein in lieu of the references As to existing enactments relating to communication pipes.

[Ch. lxxxv.] Metropolitan Water [22 & 23 GEO. 5.]
Board Act, 1932.

A.D. 1932.

in those enactments to communication pipes (that is to say) :—

The Charges Act of 1907—

Section 8 (Domestic supply and charges).

The Various Powers Act of 1907—

Section 71 (Power to Board to repair communication pipes);

Section 72 (Penalty for interference with sluices &c.).

The Charges Act of 1921—

Section 14 (Supply by measure).

The Act of 1927—

Section 18 (As to streets and roads forming boundary of limits of supply);

(b) the expression “communication pipes” in section 7 (Obligations of Board with respect to laying of mains and pipes) of the Charges Act of 1907 shall be construed as meaning service pipes as defined in this Act; and

(c) section 64 (Board not bound to supply several houses by one pipe) of the Various Powers Act of 1907 shall be read and have effect as if a reference to a service pipe had been contained therein in lieu of the reference in that section to a communication pipe.

For protection of Inner and Middle Temples.

13. The provisions of section 86 (For protection of Inner and Middle Temples) of the Various Powers Act of 1907 shall apply and have effect for the purposes of this Act as if that section had been re-enacted in this Act.

For protection of Port of London Authority.

14. Nothing in this Act (other than the provisions of the section thereof of which the marginal note is “Byelaws for preventing waste of water”) shall apply to any communication pipe service pipe supply pipe stopcock fitting or apparatus laid placed or fixed or intended to be laid placed or fixed in any land or premises within the customs fence surrounding the premises of any dock of the Port of London Authority.

Saving rights under Electricity
(Supply)
Acts.

15. Nothing in this Act shall (a) extend to or authorise any interference with any works of any undertakers within the meaning of the Electricity (Supply) Acts 1882 to 1928 to which the provisions of section 15 of the Electric Lighting Act 1882 or of section 17 of the schedule to the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act 1899 A.D. 1932. apply except in accordance with and subject to the provisions of those sections or (b) prevent or affect the exercise by any such undertakers or by the Board of any rights or powers under those provisions.

16.—(1) The Board may make byelaws for the purpose of preventing the waste undue consumption misuse or contamination of water and may by such byelaws— Byelaws for preventing waste of water.

- (a) prescribe the size nature materials workmanship and strength and the mode of arrangement connection disconnection alteration removal user replacing and repair of pipes taps cocks ferrules valves soil-pans waterclosets baths cisterns and other apparatus (in this section referred to as “water fittings”) to be used;
- (b) forbid any arrangements and the use of any water fittings which may allow or tend to waste undue consumption misuse or contamination;
- (c) require the testing and stamping of taps cocks ferrules valves flushing cisterns flushing apparatus and other similar fittings or apparatus to be fixed at any time after the coming into force of such byelaws and prescribe a reasonable charge therefor;
- (d) prescribe in connection with supplies by measure—
 - (i) the type construction user position and mode of connection and the size of inlet and outlet of meters;
 - (ii) the limits of inaccuracy and the estimation of consumption where meters are found to be defective;
 - (iii) the dimensions construction and drainage of meter pits and the type size and strength of meter boxes;
 - (iv) the method of altering repairing protecting exchanging replacing disconnecting and removing meters and pipes and stopcocks connected therewith the testing of the accuracy of registration of meters and the charges to be made for any such operations.

(2) Such byelaws shall apply only in the case of premises to which the Board are bound to afford or do in fact afford or are prepared to afford a constant supply.

A.D. 1932.

(3) All such byelaws shall be subject to the provisions contained in sections 182 183 184 and 186 of the Public Health Act 1875 and all penalties imposed for the breach of any such byelaws shall be recoverable in accordance with the provisions of that Act relating to the recovery of penalties and the said sections and provisions shall for the purposes of this section be construed as if the Board were the local authority and the limits of supply were their district within the meaning of those sections and provisions. Provided that the notice of intention to apply for confirmation of any such byelaws required by section 184 of the Public Health Act 1875 shall be given in the London Gazette in addition to one or more of such local newspapers as are referred to in that section.

(4) The Board shall on or before the date on which notice of any such byelaw is first given in any local newspaper in pursuance of the said section 184 send a copy of such byelaw to the council of each county county or other borough and urban district of which the whole or part is within the limits of supply.

(5) Any such byelaws in force for the time being shall be published by a copy thereof being kept at the principal office of the Board which copy shall be open to the inspection of all persons at all reasonable times without payment and the Board shall also furnish a printed copy of all such byelaws to every person applying for the same on payment of a sum not exceeding one shilling and sixpence for each copy.

(6) Any person who shall forge or counterfeit any stamp or mark used by the Board or by authority of the Board for any of the purposes of this section or any byelaw made in pursuance thereof or who shall use or supply anything marked with any such stamp or mark knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited shall for every such offence be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

(7) (a) So much of section 66 (Board may provide meters &c. and refuse to supply otherwise than through meters &c. so supplied) of the Various Powers Act of 1907 as empowers the Board to make such regulations as are referred to in that section and sections 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 and 25 of the Metropolis Water Act 1871 and section 26 of the Metropolis Water Act 1852 are hereby repealed but notwithstanding such repeal the regulations made under the said repealed enactments and in force at the date of the passing of this Act shall continue in force until the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five or the date of the coming into force of any byelaws made under this section (whichever shall first occur) and shall be and are hereby annulled as from the earlier of the two last-mentioned dates. A.D. 1932.

(b) As from the date of the coming into force of any byelaws made under this section—

- (i) section 24 of the Metropolis Water Act 1871 shall be read and have effect as if references to such byelaws were substituted for the references therein to regulations made under the enactments repealed by this subsection; and
- (ii) the term “prescribed” where used in any of the provisions of the Act of 1871 which are for the time being in force shall be construed as meaning prescribed by such byelaws.

17. The Board may stop up the whole or so much as they may from time to time think fit of the footpath in the metropolitan boroughs of Greenwich and Deptford shown upon the deposited plan and extending from (a) the western end of the bridge carrying the said footpath over the disused mill stream forming part of and locally known as the river Ravensbourne at or near the entrance to the works of the Board in the said metropolitan borough of Deptford to (b) the north-western end of South Crescent in the said metropolitan borough of Greenwich and upon such stopping up all rights of way over the said footpath or so much thereof as shall for the time being be stopped up under the powers of this section shall be extinguished and the Board may appropriate and use for the purposes of their undertaking the site and soil of the said footpath or part thereof Provided that the Board shall make full compensation to all parties interested in respect of any private rights of way extinguished by virtue of this section and such compensation shall be settled in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Acts (as modified by the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act 1919) with reference to the taking of lands otherwise than by agreement. Stopping up of footpath in metropolitan boroughs of Greenwich and Deptford.

A.D. 1932.

—
Power to amend provisions as to superannuation fund.

18.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Part IV (Superannuation fund) of the Various Powers Act of 1907 it shall be lawful for the Board by resolution to determine that the provisions of any scheme for the time being in force for the establishment of a superannuation fund pursuant to the said Part IV (which scheme is in this section referred to as “the scheme”) shall be altered so that in relation to all persons becoming contributors to the superannuation fund established by the Board pursuant to the said Part IV (which fund is in this section referred to as “the fund”) after the date of the passing of such resolution (which persons are in this section referred to as “new contributors”) and in relation to such (if any) of the persons who at the said date are contributors to the fund as shall within three months after that date intimate in writing to the Board their assent to such alteration (in this section referred to as “assenting contributors”) the scheme shall have effect as if the following provisions were contained therein in lieu of the provisions contained in the scheme pursuant to the second and fourth paragraphs (which respectively commence with the words “The representatives of any contributing member” and the words “Upon the death of any person”) of section 44 (Forfeiture of rights under scheme in certain cases) of the Various Powers Act of 1907 (that is to say):—

(a) The representatives of any deceased contributor who not having been guilty of fraud or dishonesty or misconduct which involves pecuniary loss to the Board has died before becoming entitled to any allowance or other benefit under the scheme shall be entitled to receive out of the fund—

(i) where the deceased contributor had been a contributor to the fund for or in respect of a period not exceeding five years the amount of his contributions with such interest thereon as shall have been credited to him in pursuance of the scheme up to the date of his death;

(ii) where the deceased contributor had been a contributor to the fund for or in respect of a period exceeding five years the amount of his contributions with such interest thereon as aforesaid or the amount of his pensionable remuneration whichever is the greater;

A.D. 1932.

and shall have no further claim on the fund;

- (b) Upon the death of any person who shall have been in receipt of or entitled to receive a retiring or superannuation allowance from the fund and who at the date of his death had not received by way of such retiring or superannuation allowance a total sum equal to or greater than the greater of the two following amounts (namely):—

(i) the aggregate amount of his contributions to the fund while he was a contributor together with such interest thereon as shall have been credited to him pursuant to the scheme up to the date of his retirement; or

(ii) the amount of the pensionable remuneration of such member;

the representatives of such person shall be entitled to receive out of the fund a sum equal to the greater of the said two amounts after deducting therefrom any sums paid to such person by way of a retiring or superannuation allowance and shall have no further claim on the fund;

- (c) For the purposes of the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) the expression "pensionable remuneration" means a sum representing the equivalent for one year of the salary or wages on which the contributor or person in relation to whom the expression is used was contributing to the fund at the date of his ceasing to be a contributor including in such salary or wages the pensionable proportion of the appropriate bonus (if any) payable to him at that date.

(2) If the Board pass any such resolution as aforesaid—

- (a) the scheme shall after the passing of such resolution be read and have effect as if the paragraphs (a) (b) and (c) set out in subsection (1) of this section were (to the extent mentioned in the said subsection (1)) substituted

A.D. 1932.

in the scheme for the provisions contained therein pursuant to the said second and fourth paragraphs of section 44 of the Various Powers Act of 1907;

(b) the said section 44 shall be deemed to be amended to the extent necessary for the purposes of this section; and

(c) unless and until the Minister of Health shall certify that the provisions of the Local Government and other Officers' Superannuation Act 1922 as amended by any subsequent Act provide in respect of the matters referred to in this section benefits not less advantageous than the benefits provided by virtue of this section any increased contribution to the fund which the actuary to whom the financial position of the fund is submitted for examination under the provisions of the scheme shall certify to be necessary to provide the sums which in consequence of the coming into operation of the said substituted paragraphs will be payable out of the fund in excess of the sums which would have been so payable if the said paragraphs had not come into operation shall be defrayed by an increase (to such extent or to such amount as may either generally or in relation to any particular contributor or contributors be certified by the said actuary) of the contributions to the fund to be made by new contributors and assenting contributors.

(3) Nothing in this section shall alter or affect any of the provisions of the scheme in relation to any persons who at the date of the passing of any such resolution as aforesaid are contributors to the fund other than the assenting contributors.

(4) Section 19 (Amendment of provisions as to superannuation fund) of the Act of 1927 is hereby repealed.

Expenses of execution of Act.

19. All expenses incurred by the Board in the execution of the purposes of this Act and not otherwise provided for other than expenses properly chargeable to capital and payable out of borrowed moneys shall be paid out of the water fund.

20. Nothing in this Act affects prejudicially any estate right power privilege or exemption of the Crown or of the commissioners for carrying into execution the Crown Estate Paving Act 1851 and the several Acts therein recited so far as the existing provisions thereof have not been repealed or altered.

A.D. 1932.

—
Crown
rights.

21. All the costs charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing applying for obtaining and passing of this Act or otherwise in relation thereto as taxed by the taxing officer of the House of Lords or of the House of Commons shall be paid by the Board.

Costs of Act.

Printed by EYRE and SPOTTISWOODE LIMITED, FOR
WILLIAM RICHARD CODLING, Esq., C.B., C.V.O., C.B.E., the King's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

To be purchased directly from H.M. STATIONERY OFFICE at the following addresses :
Adastral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 120, George Street, Edinburgh; York Street, Manchester; 1, St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 15, Donegall Square West, Belfast; or through any Bookseller.

