

CHAPTER 13.

An Act to make further provision with respect to the Arrangement of Polling Districts for the Election of County Councillors. [1st August 1908.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows (that is to say):

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Polling Districts (County Councils) Act, 1908.

Extension of powers of county councils in relation to polling districts.

2. The powers of county councils for dividing electoral divisions into polling districts for the purpose of the election of county councillors may be exercised by them from time to time, and as often as they think fit, and such powers shall be deemed to include the power of altering any polling district from time to time.

CHAPTER 14.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Arrangement of Polling Districts in Parliamentary Boroughs.

[1st August 1908.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows (that is to say):

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Polling Arrangements (Parliamentary Boroughs) Act, 1908.

Constitution of county council as the local authority in parliamentary boroughs.
31 & 32 Vict.
c. 58.

2. The second paragraph of section eighteen of the Parliamentary Electors Registration Act, 1868, is hereby repealed, and the following enactment is substituted therefor: The local authority within the meaning of the same section, in boroughs where the town council is not the local authority, shall be the county council having jurisdiction over such borough, or over the greater part of the area thereof.

Extent of Act.

3. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.
