

5.—(1) Where any such marriage as aforesaid is intended to be solemnised or contracted in Ireland, this Act shall apply subject to the following modifications:—

Application to Ireland.

(a) References to a district registrar of marriages in Ireland shall be substituted for references to a superintendent registrar:

(b) References to the Marriage Law (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1863, shall be substituted for references to the Marriage and Registration Act, 1856, except that so much of section four of the first-mentioned Act as requires a declaration of attendance at a place of worship in respect of the male party shall not apply in the case of declarations under this Act or made for the purposes of a marriage under this Act.

(2) Where one of the parties to a marriage intended to be solemnised or contracted in Ireland by licence from a district registrar of marriages in Ireland is an officer, seaman, or marine borne on the books of one of His Majesty's ships at sea, the provisions of section two of this Act as applied to Ireland shall apply as if the marriage was intended to be had without licence, and the notice to be given by the other party to the intended marriage need contain no statement as to his abode or residence in any district in the United Kingdom; but, before the district registrar issues the licence, the certificate of the captain or other officer of the ship given under this Act shall be produced to him.

6. This Act may be cited as the Naval Marriages Act, 1908, and shall come into operation on the first day of January nineteen hundred and nine.

CHAPTER 28.

An Act to consolidate the Enactments relating to Agricultural Holdings in England and Wales.

[1st August 1908.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

COMPENSATION FOR IMPROVEMENTS ON HOLDINGS.

Right of tenant
to compensation for improvements.

1.—(1) Where a tenant of a holding has made thereon any improvement comprised in the First Schedule to this Act he shall, subject as in this Act mentioned, be entitled, at the determination of a tenancy, on quitting his holding to obtain from the landlord as compensation under this Act for the improvement such sum as fairly represents the value of the improvement to an incoming tenant.

(2) In the ascertainment of the amount of the compensation payable to a tenant under this section there shall be taken into account—

- (a) any benefit which the landlord has given or allowed to the tenant in consideration of the tenant executing the improvement; and
- (b) as respects manuring as defined by this Act, the value of the manure required by the contract of tenancy or by custom to be returned to the holding in respect of any crops sold off or removed from the holding within the last two years of the tenancy or other less time for which the tenancy has endured, not exceeding the value of the manure which would have been produced by the consumption on the holding of the crops so sold off or removed.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the right of a tenant to claim any compensation to which he may be entitled under custom, agreement, or otherwise, in lieu of any compensation provided by this section.

Consent of landlord as to improvement in First Schedule, *
Part I.

2. Compensation under this Act shall not be payable in respect of any improvement comprised in Part I. of the First Schedule hereto, unless the landlord of the holding has, previously to the execution of the improvement, consented in writing
