definition:

1.—(1) Where any rural district council shall have omitted to register pursuant to the provisions of the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Act, 1891, its ownership of any parcel of land acquired by it on or before the first day of March nineteen hundred and eight, under the powers of the Labourers (Ireland) Acts, 1883 to 1906, and it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the court that the registered owner of the lands of which such parcel forms a part, had at or before the time when he was registered as owner notice of the acquisition of such parcel by the rural district council, or was otherwise in equity bound to give effect thereto, the court may upon the application of the rural district council, and after such notices as it may direct, order the register to be rectified by inserting therein the district council as registered owners of such parcel, and amending the registration as to acreage or otherwise as may be just and necessary, and upon such terms as to costs as to the court shall seem just.

Amendment Act, 1908.

(2, The words "the court" shall have the same meaning as in section thirteen of the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Act, 1891. 51 & 55 Vict. c. 59.

2. This Act may be cited as the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1908.

3. This Act shall continue in operation until the third day of December nineteen hundred and ten.

CHAPTER 59.

An Act to make better provision for the prevention of crime, and for that purpose to provide for the reformation of Young Offenders and the prolonged detention of Habitual Criminals, and for other purposes incidental thereto. [21st December 1908.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

REFORMATION OF YOUNG OFFENDERS.

1.—(1) Where a person is convicted on indictment of an offence for which he is liable to be sentenced to penal servitude or imprisonment, and it appears to the court—

Power of court to pass sentence of detention in Borstal Institution.

(a) that the person is not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-one years of age; and

(b) that, by reason of his criminal habits or tendencies, or association with persons of bad character, it is expedient that he should be subject to detention for such term and under such instruction and discipline as appears most conducive to his reformation and the repression of crime;

it shall be lawful for the court, in lieu of passing a sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment, to pass a sentence of detention under penal discipline in a Borstal Institution for a term of not less than one year nor more than three years :

Provided that, before passing such a sentence, the court shall consider any report or representations which may be made to it by or on behalf of the Prison Commissioners as to the suitability of the case for treatment in a Borstal Institution, and shall be satisfied that the character, state of health, and mental condition of the offender, and the other circumstances of the case, are
