

Deaconesses and Lay Workers (Pensions) Measure 1980

1980 No. 1

A MEASURE passed by the General Synod of the Church of England to empower the Church Commissioners to make payments for the provision or augmentation of pensions and related benefits for deaconesses, lay workers, their dependants and widows; and for purposes connected therewith.

[20th March 1980]

1.—(1) The Church Commissioners shall have power to make payments out of their general fund to the Church of England Pensions Board (hereinafter referred to as “the Board”) for the purposes of providing or augmenting—

Power of Church Commissioners to make payments for provision, etc. of pension benefits for deaconesses and lay workers.

(a) pensions for deaconesses and lay workers and their dependants and widows; and

(b) any lump sums paid or payable to deaconesses and lay workers on their retirement from service;

and any such payment may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be agreed between the Church Commissioners and the Board.

(2) Any sums paid to the Board under subsection (1) above shall be applied by the Board in such manner as the Board, in consultation with the Church Commissioners, thinks fit to implement the purposes mentioned in that subsection and, without prejudice to the generality of the preceding words, the Board may pay part or all of any such sum into the fund established by the Board and known as the Church Workers Pension Fund or any other fund established for the said purposes or any of them.

(3) In this section—

“dependant”, in relation to a deaconess or lay worker, means such person as the Board may consider to have been wholly or partly dependent financially on the deaconess or lay worker at the time of her or his death;

“lay worker” means a person who has been admitted by a bishop as a lay worker of the Church of England and who has been authorised by a bishop, whether by licence or otherwise, to serve as such a worker in a diocese.

Short title and extent.

2.—(1) This Measure may be cited as the Deaconesses and Lay Workers (Pensions) Measure 1980.

1931 No. 5.
1957 No. 1.

(2) This Measure shall extend to the whole of the Provinces of Canterbury and York except the Channel Islands, but may be applied to the Channel Islands as defined in the Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measures 1931 and 1957, or either of them, in accordance with those Measures.
