CHAPTER xxxiii.

An Act to confer powers on the London County Council and for other purposes. A.D. 1919.
[31st July 1919.]

WHEREAS the London County Council (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") have recently carried out widenings of various parts of the Strand and it is expedient that they should be empowered to acquire compulsorily the lands described in this Act which are required for the purpose of a further widening of the Strand:

And whereas it was provided by the Metropolitan District Railways Act 1864 that the terrace formed by the roof of the Temple Station of the Metropolitan District Railway Company (hereinafter referred to as "the railway company") should not be made without the previous consent of the Metropolitan Board of Works and should be maintained by the railway company and should be open to the public: 27 & 28 Vict.

And whereas the said terrace was constructed with such consent as aforesaid but the said rights of public user which had been exercised for some years after such construction were not exercised for a considerable period prior to the passing of the Act next hereinafter referred to:

And whereas by the Metropolitan District Railway Act 1910 the railway company were authorised to reconstruct and enlarge their said Temple Station and it was enacted that the said station as reconstructed or enlarged should be provided with a flat roof and accesses thereto and be so maintained by the railway company and that such roof and accesses should be open to the public: 10 Edw. 7 & 1 Geo. 5.
c. cix.

And whereas the railway company reconstructed and enlarged the said station and provided such a roof and accesses

A.D. 1919. as aforesaid but the rights of public user thereof under the said Act of 1910 have not been exercised and it is expedient that the provisions with respect thereto which are contained in this Act should be made:

1 Edw. 7.
c. cclxxii.

And whereas under powers conferred by the London County Council (General Powers) Act 1901 the Council acquired for the purpose of extending the open space in the metropolitan borough of Lambeth vested in them and known as Brockwell Park and now hold (inter alia) certain premises known as Brockwell Hall and certain lands adjacent thereto which premises and lands are subject to a lease thereof which was subsisting at the date of such acquisition and will shortly expire:

And whereas it was provided by the said London County Council (General Powers) Act 1901 that as from the expiration or earlier determination of any existing lease subject to which they might so acquire any lands the Council might use such lands as and for an open space or recreation ground in enlargement of or in connexion with Brockwell Park but inasmuch as the premises and lands demised by the lease hereinbefore referred to are being used for purposes of national importance it is expedient that the Council should be empowered to renew the said existing lease and that the said premises and lands should not be used as and for an open space or recreation ground as aforesaid until the expiration or earlier determination of the term granted upon any such renewal:

And whereas it is expedient that the agreement for the purchase by the Council of certain lands in the metropolitan borough of Islington and the agreements supplemental thereto which are set forth in the schedule to this Act should be confirmed:

And whereas the Council have deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of London a plan describing the lands which may be compulsorily taken under the powers of this Act and also a book of reference to such plan containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees and of the occupiers of the said lands and such plan and book of reference are respectively referred to in this Act as the deposited plan and book of reference:

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

[9 & 10 GEO. 5.] London County Council (General [Ch. xxxiii.] Powers) Act, 1919.

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the London County Council (General Powers) Act 1919. A.D. 1919.

2. The Lands Clauses Acts (except sections 127 and 133 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845) so far as the same are applicable for the purposes of and not inconsistent with or varied by this Act are hereby incorporated with and form part of this Act: Incorporation of Lands Clauses Acts.

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 any claim for compensation under this Act or any Act incorporated herewith by any person having or in respect of any interest in the lands in respect of which compensation is claimed not greater than that of a lessee or tenant for any term of which not more than eighteen months remain unexpired at the time when the claim is made shall be determined by justices in the manner provided by section 121 of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act.

3. The several words and expressions to which by the Lands Clauses Acts meanings are assigned have in this Act the same respective meanings unless there be in the subject or context something repugnant to or inconsistent with such construction. And in this Act— Interpretation.

AN AGREEMENT made the 23rd day of December 1914 between FREDERICK THOMAS PENTON of 43 Portland Place W. late a captain in His Majesty's 4th Regiment of Dragoon Guards (hereinafter called "the vendor") of the first part ARTHUR POLE PENTON of Government House Devonport in the county of Devon a major-general in His Majesty's Army C.V.O. C.B. CLAUDE SPENCER LANGLEY of 9 Onslow Crescent South Kensington in the county of London Esquire FREDERICK GEORGE PARSONS lieutenant-colonel in command of the 4th Battalion Wiltshire Regiment now stationed at Trowbridge in the county of Somerset D.S.O. and CECIL GEORGE GRAHAM STEWART of the Junior Carlton Club Pall Mall in the county of London Esquire (hereinafter called "the trustees") of the second part and the LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL (hereinafter called "the Council") of the third part.

WHEREAS the land coloured red on the plan annexed hereto is vested in the vendor as tenant for life of the fee simple free from incumbrances and tithe subject only to the leases the short particulars of which are set out in the schedule hereto:

And whereas the Council are desirous of effecting an improvement in the metropolis by the widening of Liverpool Road Finsbury and the vendor has agreed to join in effecting the said improvement on the terms hereinafter expressed:

Now it is hereby agreed between the parties hereto as follows:—

1. The vendor shall sell and the Council shall purchase for the sum of 2756*l.* 5*s.* 0*d.* the fee simple in possession free from incumbrances and land tax and tenancies of and in all that strip of land forming part of Nos. 3 5 5A 7 9 and 11 Liverpool Road in the county of London which strip of land is more particularly delineated and shown on the plan annexed hereto and thereon coloured red.

2. Subject to clause 5 hereof the said purchase shall be completed on the 25th day of March 1929 or on such earlier date as vacant possession of the said strip of land is given to the Council and except so far as may be necessary for the execution of the work of demolition mentioned in clause 4 hereof full possession of the said premises shall be given to the Council on the said day of completion.

[9 & 10 GEO. 5.] London County Council (General [Ch. xxxiii.]
Powers) Act, 1919.

3. Rents profits and outgoings shall be received and paid by the vendor to the date of completion of the said purchase and by the Council from such day and shall be apportioned if need be. A.D. 1919.

4. The vendor will within two months of the completion of the purchase pull down and demolish to pavement level all buildings standing on the said strip of land and the Council will thereupon at their own expense forthwith throw such strip of land into the public way and execute all necessary paving works so as to give the vendor in respect of the remainder of the premises Nos. 3 5 5A 7 9 and 11 Liverpool Road retained by him a frontage to Liverpool Road as intended to be widened. Before the vendor shall commence to rebuild on the remainder of the said premises retained by him he shall give to the valuer of the Council seven days' notice in writing of his intention to do so in order that the new line of widening may be agreed and set out.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions the Council will (provided that the title of the vendor has been accepted) if desired by the vendor from time to time as and when vacant possession of any part of the said strip of land cleared of buildings is given to the Council make payment to the trustees as trustees for the purposes of the Settled Lands Acts or other the trustees of the land for the time being for those purposes on account of the said sum of 2756*l.* 5*s.* 0*d.* according to the area of the land of which vacant possession shall be so given to the Council and thereupon the trustees or such other trustees as aforesaid shall give receipts to the Council in respect of every such payment.

6. The Council shall within one month from the date hereof pay the sum of 28*l.* 7*s.* as the agreed costs of the vendor's surveyors and 5*l.* 5*s.* for solicitors preliminary costs up to and including the exchange of this agreement.

7. The Council will pay the vendor's costs of title and conveyance as allowed by section 82 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 and will if required execute a duplicate or duplicates of any conveyance or conveyances such duplicate or duplicates to be made by the vendor at his own expense.

8. This agreement is conditional on an Act of Parliament being passed and receiving the Royal Assent within two years from the 24th August 1914 empowering the vendor to sell the fee simple free from tenancies of the land comprised in this contract at the price herein mentioned and enabling the vendor so as to bind himself his successors in title and the trustees for the time being of the settled estate to convey the land to the Council on the terms of this agree-
