

International Monetary Fund Act 1970

1970 CHAPTER 49

An Act to enable effect to be given to a proposed increase in the United Kingdom's quota of the International Monetary Fund and to provide for certain loans to that Fund to be made out of the National Loans Fund instead of the Consolidated Fund.

[23rd July 1970]

WHEREAS it is proposed to increase the quotas of members of the International Monetary Fund and in particular to make an increase of 360 million United States dollars in the quota of the United Kingdom:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

subscriptions.

1. There shall be paid out of the National Loans Fund the sums required for the purpose of making payments to the International Monetary Fund equal to the proposed increase aforesaid in the quota of the United Kingdom.

Amendment of 1962 c. 20.

2. In subsection (1) of section 1 of the International Monetary Fund Act 1962 (which authorises the payment out of the Consolidated Fund of certain sums required for making loans to the International Monetary Fund) for the words "Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom" there shall be substituted the words "National Loans Fund"; and subsection (2) of that section (which authorises the borrowing of money for the purpose of providing or replacing the sums aforesaid) is hereby repealed.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the International Monetary Fund Act 1970.
