

ELIZABETH II

1970 CHAPTER xxxi

An Act to confirm a Provisional Order under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936, relating to Aberdeen Extension. [23rd July 1970]

WHEREAS the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed has been made by the Secretary of State under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936, and it is requisite that the said 1936 c. 52.
Order should be confirmed by Parliament:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Provisional Order contained in the schedule hereunto annexed is hereby confirmed. Confirmation of Order in schedule.

2. This Act may be cited as the Aberdeen Extension Order Short title.
Confirmation Act 1970.

SCHEDULE
ABERDEEN EXTENSION

Provisional Order to extend the boundaries of the city and royal burgh of Aberdeen and for other purposes.

Whereas the lord provost, magistrates and town council of the city and royal burgh of Aberdeen (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") are vested with the municipal government of the said city and royal burgh (hereinafter referred to as "the city") and are the local authority therein:

And whereas the lands available within the city for the purpose of providing housing accommodation for the inhabitants of the city relieving the overcrowding which prevails in parts of the city and redeveloping built up areas in the city are limited in extent and it is necessary to provide for the erection of houses on lands outwith the existing boundaries of the city:

And whereas the areas described in Part I of Schedule 1 to this Order (hereinafter referred to as "the added areas") are situated in the county of Aberdeen and in the county of Kincardine and immediately adjoin the city:

And whereas lands within the added areas are suitable for housing and it would be proper and expedient that such lands should be developed for housing in conjunction with the city:

And whereas the added areas with the city form a coincident and convenient area the boundaries of which are readily capable of definition:

And whereas it is expedient and in the public interest that the municipal administration of the city and the added areas should be under one authority:

And whereas it is expedient that the boundaries of the city should be extended to include the added areas and that all franchises, rights, privileges and immunities and all public and general and local and personal Acts and Orders relating to and in force for the time being in or applicable to the city should as provided in this Order be applied to the added areas:

And whereas the city is a county of a city under the name of the county of the city of Aberdeen and it is expedient that the added areas should be separated and disjoined from the county of Aberdeen and the county of Kincardine and be incorporated with and form part of the county of the city of Aberdeen:

And whereas it is expedient that the added areas should be added to and form part of municipal wards of the city as provided in this Order:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Order should be enacted:

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without an Order confirmed by Parliament under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936: 1936 c. 52.

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers contained in the last-mentioned Act the Secretary of State orders as follows:—

Deposit of
1936 c. 52.

5.—(1) A map of the city (distinguishing the added areas) of which fourteen copies have been signed by Colin Neil Fraser, Q.C., Counsel to the Secretary of State under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936, shall within four weeks after the date of the passing of the Act confirming this Order be deposited as follows (that is to say): one copy in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, one copy in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, one copy in the Scottish Office, London, one copy with the town clerk at his office in Aberdeen, one copy with the sheriff clerk of the county of Aberdeen at his office in Aberdeen, one copy with the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, one copy with the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, one copy with the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, one copy with the Board of Trade, one copy with the Post Office, one copy with the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages for Scotland, one copy with the Minister of Transport, one copy with the Minister of Technology and one copy with the Director General Ordnance Survey.

(2) If there is any discrepancy between the said map and the description in Part II of Schedule 1 to this Order the said map shall be deemed to be correct and shall prevail.

(3) The copy of the map of the city deposited with the town clerk in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section (which copy shall also show the boundaries of the several wards of the city as described in Part III of Schedule 2 to this Order) shall be substituted for the map referred to in subsection (3) of section 5 (Deposit of map of city) of the Order of 1952 and references in the city Acts to the city map as therein defined shall be deemed to be references to the said map deposited with the town clerk in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section.

Boundary of county of city.

6. The added areas shall subject to the provisions of this Order and for the purposes of Part II (General Administration) of the Order of 1939 be incorporated with and form part of the county of the city of Aberdeen and be disjoined and separated from the county of Aberdeen and from the county of Kincardine and the city Acts shall be read and construed accordingly.

City parish.

7. The city parish of Aberdeen shall include and comprehend the city.

Added areas to form part of adjoining wards and boundaries of wards.

8.—(1) The portion of added area No. 1 firstly described, the portion of added area No. 1 secondly described and the portion of added area No. 1 thirdly described in Part I of Schedule 2 to this Order shall respectively be added to and shall form part of ward No. 5 (Northfield), ward No. 6 (Mastrick) and ward No. 7 (Rosemount) of the existing city, as those wards respectively existed immediately before the commencement of this Order.

(2) The portion of added area No. 2 firstly described and the portion of added area No. 2 secondly described in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Order shall respectively be added to and shall form part of ward No. 11 (Ferryhill) and ward No. 12 (Torry) of the existing city as those wards respectively existed before the commencement of this Order.

(3) Unless and until otherwise determined the numbers, names and boundaries of the wards of the city shall be those respectively set forth and described in Part III of Schedule 2 to this Order and shown on the map referred to in subsection (3) of section 5 (Deposit of map of city) of this Order.

(4) If there is any discrepancy between the said map and the descriptions in Part III of Schedule 2 to this Order the said map shall be deemed to be correct and shall prevail.

(5) The Aberdeen Wards Order, 1960, made by the Secretary of State under subsections (1) and (3) of section 21 and section 361 of the Act of 1947 is hereby repealed and the Order of 1939 as amended by the Order of 1952 and this Order shall be read and construed as if for the references therein to the wards of the city there were substituted references to the wards of the city described in Part III of Schedule 2 to this Order and shown on the above-mentioned map.

9.—(1) After the commencement of this Order and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act the following provisions shall apply and have effect with respect to the registration of electors in the city (that is to say):—

- (i) In order to enable the city assessor to make up for the added areas the register of electors for the year commencing 16th February, 1971, he shall be entitled to access to the books and schedules of any registration officer acting under the Representation of the People Acts for the county of Aberdeen and the county of Kincardine so far as they relate to the added areas and such registration officer shall give the city assessor all necessary and reasonable facilities for that purpose: and
- (ii) All rights and liabilities under any contracts entered into before the commencement of this Order by the county councils or by the North Eastern Counties Valuation Committee or by any registration officer as to the printing of the list or register of Parliamentary and local government electors shall so far as applying to the added areas be transferred to and vested in the city assessor and the Corporation and all expenses connected with the making up of the register of such electors for the added areas shall be borne in accordance with and in terms of the provisions of the Representation of the People Acts.

(2) In the event of a municipal by-election occurring between the commencement of this Order and 15th February, 1971, in ward No. 5 (Northfield), ward No. 6 (Mastrick), ward No. 7 (Rosemount), ward No. 11 (Ferryhill) or ward No. 12 (Torry), as the said wards are respectively described in Part III of Schedule 2 to this Order, it shall be the duty of the city assessor to prepare a register of local government electors for the purpose of such by-election and such register shall consist of the existing register of local government electors for such ward, together with such portion of the register of electors for any registration area as contains the names of local government electors registered in respect of lands and heritages or premises situated in the part of the added areas forming part of the ward in which such by-election occurs:

Provided that for the purpose of preparing any register of electors for the purpose of this subsection the city assessor shall be entitled to access to the books and schedules of any registration officer acting under the Representation of the People Acts for the county so far as such books and schedules relate to the added areas and such registration officer shall give the city assessor all necessary and reasonable facilities for that purpose.

Sheriff may vary procedure for by-elections.

10. In the event of circumstances arising in connection with any such by-election as is referred to in subsection (2) of the immediately preceding section of this Order which may render it necessary or expedient to fix, postpone, alter or vary any date (other than the commencement of this Order) or any procedure prescribed by or in pursuance of the provisions of the Representation of the People Acts or this Order or to make up any register or list of electors or any other matter relating to such by-election register or list, the sheriff may on a summary application by the town clerk forthwith fix any such date or sanction any such postponement, alteration or variation or dispense with any procedure in the making up of such register or list or any other matter as may in his judgment be best fitted to meet the circumstances of the case and the whole procedure following upon such application and any order made by the sheriff shall be valid and unchallengeable.

Property of existing city vested in Corporation.

11. Subject to the provisions of this Order the common good and all property heritable and movable (including all means, revenues and income of every description arising therefrom) belonging to or leviable within the existing city or to which the existing city is entitled or which is held or administered by any person for or on behalf of the community of the existing city or for the public ends and purposes thereof shall be vested in and be held by the Corporation for the behoof and benefit of the city or as the case may be administered by such person for or on behalf of the community of the city or for the public ends and purposes thereof and all debts and obligations due by or exigible from the existing city shall be due by and exigible from the city and all debts due to the Corporation by any person before the commencement of this Order may be demanded and recovered from such person and received and applied by the Corporation for behoof of the city.

Powers
extended over
added areas.

12. The Corporation, the lord provost, the magistrates and the dean of guild of the city shall (subject to the provisions of this Order) have, possess and may exercise the same powers and authorities including powers of assessment respectively in and over the city and over the inhabitants thereof as the Corporation, the lord provost, the magistrates and the dean of guild of the existing city have, possess and exercise in their several characters and capacities in and over the existing city whether by usage or at common law or by statute.

Deductions from rates in added areas.

13.—(1) In the case of any dwellinghouse which—

(a) is situated in the added areas; and

(b) is entered in the valuation roll in operation in respect of such areas on the 2nd day of December, 1968;

the amount in the pound of the city rate (including for this purpose the domestic water rate) fixed in relation to dwellinghouses in respect of each financial year of the Corporation specified in column 1 below shall notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment be levied under deduction therefrom of the amount in the pound specified opposite that year in column 2 below:—

Column 1	Column 2
1970/71	7/6
1971/72	5/—
1972/73	2/6

(2) During the three financial years specified in column 1 of subsection (1) of this section any statutory obligations imposed on the Corporation with respect to cleansing, lighting and the construction of sewers and drains shall not apply within the added areas except to such extent as the Corporation may from time to time in their absolute discretion determine.

14. The several officers of or appointed by the Corporation shall have, possess and exercise in their several characters and capacities the same powers and authorities in and over the city as they have, possess and exercise in their several characters and capacities in and over the existing city whether by usage or at common law or by statute but without prejudice to the right of the Corporation to make such arrangements in regard to the said officers and their respective duties as before the commencement of this Order they were entitled to make with reference to the officers of the existing city.

Officers in existing city.

15. All public and general and local and personal Acts relating to and in force in the existing city and all byelaws, rules, regulations, orders and directions made thereunder shall subject to the provisions of this Order be exercised over and be applicable to the city.

Application of general and local Acts.

16. Subject to the provisions of this Order and in so far as necessary to give full effect thereto—

Separate jurisdictions to cease.

(1) all separate magistracies, councils, commissions, authorities and jurisdictions in the added areas shall cease and determine;

(2) all actions, prosecutions or processes both in civil and criminal causes before the justice of peace courts for the added areas in dependence at the date of the passing of the Act confirming this Order shall be adjudged and finally disposed of by the said justice of peace courts notwithstanding anything in this Order to the contrary.

17. Subject to the provisions of this Order all jurisdictions, rights, powers and duties which before the commencement of this Order were exercised or exercisable by the county councils or any other local or licensing or other authority within the added areas or any parts thereof shall cease and determine.

Powers of local authorities to cease in added areas.

18.—(1) As from the commencement of this Order the Corporation shall be entitled at all reasonable times to inspect and take copies of all plans or documents relating to any land within the added areas which are in the possession or under the control of the county councils for the purposes of or in connection with the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Acts, 1947 to 1966, and the county councils shall supply to the Corporation such information and shall afford to them such assistance for the purposes of or in connection with the said Acts as the Corporation may reasonably require.

1947 c. 53.

(2) An office copy of every entry in the register relating to any land within the added areas kept by the county councils under section 12 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947, shall within one month after the date of the commencement of this Order be supplied to the town clerk by the clerks of the county councils.

(3) Any application for planning permission or for any consent or approval under the said Acts of 1947 to 1966 or for a determination under section 15 of the said Act of 1947 made to the county councils before the commencement of this Order and not determined before the commencement of this Order shall so far as it relates to land within the added areas be treated as a like application made to the Corporation and shall be treated as having been made at the commencement of this Order:

Provided that it shall not be necessary for the Corporation to consult with any authority or person with whom consultation has already taken place in relation to that application.

(4) Any order, agreement, permission, approval, determination, consent, notice, proceeding or decision made, taken or given by the county councils as local planning authorities under the said Acts of 1947 to 1966 or having effect as if so made, taken or given and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order shall so far as it relates to any land within the added areas have effect as if it had been made, taken or given by the Corporation as such authority in respect of that land.

(5) Any direction, approval, consent or decision given by the Secretary of State or the Minister of Transport under or in pursuance of the said Acts of 1947 to 1966 or any enactment thereby repealed affecting the county councils as local planning authorities and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order shall so far as it relates to any land within the added areas have effect as if the same had been given to the Corporation as local planning authority.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding anything contained in section 26 (Books to be evidence) of this Order.

Joint town planning scheme.

19. Nothing in this Order shall affect the Aberdeen and District Joint Town Planning Scheme, 1933, so far as the said scheme is in operation at the commencement of this Order provided that the Corporation shall be the responsible authority within the meaning and for the purposes of the said scheme in the added areas as well as within the existing city.

Industrial development certificates.

20. Any certificate issued under section 12 (4) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947, in respect of any land in the added areas shall continue to have effect on and after the commencement of this Order as if this Order had not been made.

21.—(1) Any special lighting, drainage and scavenging districts of the county councils so far as situated in the added areas shall be and are hereby abolished and to that extent all resolutions of the county councils and all orders and decrees of the sheriff or of any other authority constituting or relating to the said special districts shall be of no force or effect and the county councils shall be relieved from all obligations in respect of the said special districts so far as situated in the added areas.

Abolition of special districts.

(2) The Corporation shall not in respect of such special districts be under any obligations nor except by agreement with the local authority of such districts exercise any powers in such districts in so far as these are beyond the city.

22.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order and except as may be otherwise agreed, all property and assets of every description vested in, held by or due or belonging to the county councils or other local authorities in the added areas are by virtue of this Order and without the necessity of recording in the Register of Sasines any conveyance, notarial instrument, notice of title or other deed or writing transferred to and vested in and shall be held by and be due and belong to the Corporation and shall form part of the property and assets of the Corporation for all the estate and interest therein of the county councils or such authorities and shall be received, held and enjoyed by the Corporation accordingly.

Transfer of property and liabilities.

(2) All the liabilities, contracts and agreements of the county councils and of such authorities in relation to the added areas are by virtue of this Order transferred and shall attach to the Corporation and shall form part of the liabilities, contracts and agreements of the Corporation and be enjoyed, performed, paid and discharged by them:

Provided that no liabilities, contracts and agreements as aforesaid entered into after 27th November, 1968, shall be transferred or attach to the Corporation unless necessary for, and entered into or incurred in, the ordinary course of carrying on the business of the authority concerned, or unless the consent in writing of the Corporation under the hand of the town clerk shall previously have been given.

(3) For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to complete a title if thought fit to any heritable property transferred to and vested in them by virtue of this Order by expeding a notarial instrument, notice of title or otherwise, this Order shall be deemed to be and may be used as a general disposition or assignation as the case may be of such property in favour of the Corporation.

(4) Subject to the provisions of any general Act of Parliament and of the city Acts and this Order the Corporation shall determine any question which arises as to the department of the Corporation to which any part of such property or assets ought to belong for the purposes of administration and any question as to the fund of the Corporation out of which such liabilities and obligations shall be defrayed.

23. Subject to the provisions of this Order—

(1) all bridges, highways, roads, streets, footpaths, lanes and courts in the added areas, so far as the same are at the com-

Roads, etc.,
in added areas.

mencement of this Order vested in and managed, maintained and repaired by either of the county councils, or by any district council or other local authority, shall by virtue of this Order be transferred to and vested in and shall be managed, maintained and repaired by the Corporation along with and in the same way and manner and to the same extent as the bridges, highways, roads, streets, footpaths, lanes and courts within the existing city; and

- (2) the said councils or authorities shall be freed and relieved of the liability to repair and maintain all such bridges, highways, roads, streets, footpaths, lanes and courts in all time coming:

Provided that no bridges, highways, roads, streets, footpaths, lanes and courts in the added areas shall be taken over by, transferred to or vested in either of the county councils or in any council or authority as aforesaid after 27th November, 1968, unless the consent in writing of the Corporation under the hand of the town clerk shall previously have been given.

Adjustment of property and
liabilities.

24. The provisions of section 141 of the Act of 1947 shall apply to this Order as if the alteration of areas made by this Order were an alteration of areas made under Part VI of that Act.

Proceedings
not to abate.

25. All legal or other proceedings begun before the commencement of this Order and relating to any property or liabilities transferred to the Corporation under this Order may be carried on with the substitution of the Corporation as party to the proceedings in lieu of the authority from whom the property or liabilities was or were transferred and any such proceedings may be amended in such manner as may be necessary for that purpose.

Books to be evidence.

26.—(1) All books, documents (including certified copies of agreements relating to the added areas), maps and plans directed or authorised to be kept by the county councils or any other local authorities in the added areas by any Act or otherwise shall so far as they relate to the added areas belong and be transferred to the Corporation and in so far as they would at the commencement of this Order be receivable in evidence shall be admitted as evidence in all courts and proceedings notwithstanding the cesser of the powers of the county councils or such authorities.

(2) This section shall not apply to the books, documents, maps and plans kept by the county councils or other local authorities which relate to parts of the counties other than the added areas but the Corporation and their officers shall be entitled to access to such books, documents, maps and plans in so far as may be necessary in relation to matters affecting the added areas and the respective clerks or other officers of the county councils and of the said authorities shall afford all necessary and reasonable facilities for that purpose.

Saving for county
councillors.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of 1947 or any other enactment or this Order any member of the county councils or of any district council who at the commencement of this Order represents any electoral division situated partly within and partly without the added areas shall in ordinary course continue to be a member of the county councils or of such district council as the case may be until the next election of county councillors or district councillors as the case may be after the commencement of this Order.

28. Nothing in this Order shall prejudice or interfere with the powers of the county councils to recover all rates and assessments imposed by and due to them in respect of subjects in the added areas for any year before the commencement of this Order.

Saving recovery of rates by county councils.

29. Nothing in this Order shall interfere with the election of members to serve in Parliament for the counties and the counties shall for parliamentary purposes remain the same in all respects as if the Act confirming this Order had not been passed.

Order not to affect election of members to serve in Parliament.

30. The Corporation, in addition to any other powers of borrowing which they may have, may from time to time borrow at interest such sums of money as may be necessary for—

Borrowing
powers.

(a) the several purposes of this Order;

(b) the payment of the costs, charges and expenses of this Order:

Provided that money so borrowed for purpose (a) shall be repaid within thirty years from the date or dates of borrowing and that money so borrowed for purpose (b) shall be repaid within five years from the commencement of this Order.

31. Nothing in this Order shall authorise the exercise of any power of borrowing money or the making of any issue of capital otherwise than in compliance with the provisions of any order for the time being in force under section 1 of the Borrowing (Control and Guarantees) Act, 1946, or of section 259 of the Act of 1947.

Saving for control on borrowing.

1946 c. 58.

32. Nothing in this Order shall affect the provisions of the Sheriff Court Houses Acts, 1860 to 1884, or the Aberdeen County and Municipal Buildings Act, 1866, or any Act amending the same or interfere with or affect the powers of the Commissioners under the said last-mentioned Act.

Sheriff Court Houses Acts, etc., not to be affected.
1866 c. civ.

33. Nothing in this Order shall affect prejudicially any estate, right, power, privilege or exemption of the Crown or shall subject to the provisions of this Order any lands, buildings or works vested in or occupied by the Crown or any department of Her Majesty's Government except to such extent as Her Majesty or such department may voluntarily agree.

Crown rights.

34. All costs, charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing for, obtaining and confirming of this Order or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Corporation out of any funds (not being in the nature of capital), rates or revenues belonging to them or under their control or out of moneys to be borrowed by them under this Order for that purpose.

Costs of Order.
