

10. The provisions of this Act shall apply in the case of any alteration under the London Government Act, 1899, of the boundaries of the administrative county of London in the same manner as it applies in the case of any alteration of area under the London Government Act, 1899, which takes effect solely within that county, with the substitution where necessary of the district or borough council for the council of a metropolitan borough and of the district or borough for the metropolitan borough, as the case may require.

Provision where boundaries of county are altered.

11. Nothing in this Act shall affect any order made under section one hundred and forty of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855 (which relates to the management of streets in different parishes), or the provisions of any scheme made under the London Government Act, 1899.

Saving for orders under 18 & 19 Vict. c. 120, s. 140.

12.—(1) Anything required or authorised to be done under this Act by the Board of Trade may be done by the President or a secretary or assistant secretary of the Board.

Proceedings of Board of Trade.

(2) All documents purporting to be orders under this Act made by the Board of Trade and to be sealed with the seal of the Board, or to be signed by a secretary or assistant secretary of the Board, or by any person authorised in that behalf by the President of the Board, shall be received in evidence and shall be deemed to be such orders without further proof, unless the contrary is shown.

(3) A certificate, signed by the President of the Board of Trade, that any order made or act done under this Act is the order or act of the Board shall be conclusive evidence of the fact so certified.

13. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— Interpretation.

The expression “authorised” means authorised on the first day of January nineteen hundred and four by Act of Parliament or by a Provisional Order confirmed by an Act of Parliament; and

The expression “area of supply” means the area within which any council or company are authorised to supply electricity; and

The expression “electricity” has the same meaning as in the Electric Lighting Act, 1882.

45 & 46 Vict. c. 56.

14. This Act may be cited as the London Electric Lighting Areas Act, 1904.

Short title.

CHAPTER 14.

An Act to amend the Post Office Acts with respect to cumulative commissions on Money Orders and the use of embossed and impressed stamps.

[15th August 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Abolition of cumulative
commissions
on money orders.

43 & 44 Vict.
c. 33.

1. The commission payable in respect of a money order issued under the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, as amended by any subsequent Act, and presented for payment at any time after the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, shall in all cases be an amount equal to that of the original poundage, and accordingly proviso (3) to section one of the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, shall be repealed from "with the addition" to the end of the proviso.

Use of
stamps.

33 & 34 Vict.
c. 79.

2. The Treasury may by warrant under the Post Office Acts, 1837 to 1903, regulate the use, by way of prepayment of postage, of embossed or impressed stamps cut out or otherwise separated from the cover or other paper, card, or thing on which the stamp was embossed or impressed, and section nineteen of the Post Office Act, 1870, which prohibits such use of such stamps, shall be repealed.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Post Office Act, 1904, and may be cited with the Post Office Acts, 1837 to 1903, and so far as it relates to money orders may also be cited with the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 to 1903.

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. [15th August 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Cruelty to Children.

Punishment for cruelty to children.

1.—(1) If any person over the age of sixteen years, who has the custody, charge or care of any child under the age of sixteen years, wilfully assaults, ill-treats, neglects, abandons or exposes such child, or causes or procures such child to be assaulted, ill-treated, neglected, abandoned or exposed in a manner likely to cause such child unnecessary suffering or injury to its health (including injury to or loss of sight or hearing or limb or organ of the body and any mental derangement), that person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor ; and

(a) on conviction on indictment, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or alternatively, or in default of payment of such fine, or in addition thereto, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding two years ; and

(b) on summary conviction, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, or alternatively, or in default of payment of such fine, or in addition thereto, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding six months.
