

40 & 41 Vict.
c. 2.

nineteen hundred and five, and section six of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877 (which relates to the renewal of bills), shall not apply with respect to those bills.

(3) Any money borrowed otherwise than on Treasury Bills shall be repaid, with interest not exceeding five pounds per cent. per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund, at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the money was borrowed.

(4) Any money borrowed under this section shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such Fund is available.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund (No. 1) Act, 1904.

CHAPTER 2.

An Act to authorise the appropriation of the surplus funds derived from Battersea Park towards the opening of the Mall into Charing Cross and other Metropolitan Improvements. [29th March 1904.]

14 & 15 Vict.
c. 77.

WHEREAS under section sixteen of an Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of Her late Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, intituled "An Act to alter and extend the powers of an Act of the ninth and tenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to form a Royal Park 'in Battersea Fields, in the county of Surrey,'" provision was made for the creation of a surplus fund, derived from moneys payable under that Act, and for the accumulation of the said fund until it should be required for, and appropriated by Parliament to, the execution of improvements in the metropolis or its neighbourhood, and it is expedient to authorise the appropriation of that fund:

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Appropriation of fund to Charing Cross and other improvements.

• 1. The said fund may be applied by the Commissioners of Works towards the opening of the Mall into Charing Cross and other works connected therewith, and if any residue remains it may be applied by the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Treasury, to such other improvements in the metropolis or its neighbourhood as they may think fit.

Short titles.

2. This Act may be cited as the Metropolitan Improvements (Funds) Act, 1904, and the above recited Act may be cited as the Battersea Park Act, 1851.
