

CHAPTER 32.

An Act to amend the Outdoor Relief Friendly Societies Act, 1894.
[15th August 1904.]

• BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) The discretion given by section one of the Outdoor Relief Friendly Societies Act, 1894, to the boards of guardians to take or not to take into consideration the amount received by a member of a friendly society when granting outdoor relief shall be limited as herein-after provided.

Limitation of discretion of boards of guardians in granting outdoor relief.
57 & 58 Vict. c. 25.

(2) In granting outdoor relief to a member of any friendly society, the board of guardians shall not take into consideration any sum received from such friendly society as sick pay, except in so far as such sum shall exceed five shillings a week.

2. This Act may be cited as the Outdoor Relief (Friendly Societies) Act, 1904.

CHAPTER 33.

An Act for approving and carrying into Effect a Convention between His Majesty and the President of the French Republic.
[15th August 1904.]

WHEREAS His Majesty the King and the President of the French Republic have, subject to the approval of their respective Parliaments, concluded the Convention set out in the schedule to this Act, and it is expedient to give such approval :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) The approval of Parliament is hereby given to the Convention set out in the schedule to this Act, and it shall be lawful for His Majesty the King to do everything which appears to His Majesty necessary or proper for carrying into effect that Convention.

Approval of Convention.

(2) Any sums payable by way of indemnity under the said Convention and any expenses to be incurred in carrying it into effect shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

2. This Act may be cited as the Anglo-French Convention Act, 1904.
