tection of Gas Light
and Coke Company.

14. The provisions of sections 30 32 and 33 of the Tramways Act 1870 shall subject as herein-after provided extend and apply to any main pipe or apparatus of the Gas Light and Coke Company (in this section called "the gas company") which may be affected by the execution of the works by this Act authorised or by the adaptation or alteration of any tramway of the Company under the Act of 1903 as if those works were a tramway within the meaning of the said sections. Provided always that if within seven days of the receipt by the gas company of the notice required by subsection (1) of the said section 30 as applied by this section to be given by the Company the gas company shall by notice in writing so require the gas company may by their own engineer or workmen execute any work of lowering or altering the position of any main pipe or apparatus which they would be entitled under the provisions of the said section to require the Company to execute and shall carry out such work with all reasonable speed and the Company shall on the completion thereof pay to the gas company the reasonable expenses incurred by them in carrying out such work.

For protection of Metropolitan Electric Supply
Company Limited.

15. The provisions of sections 30 32 and 33 of the Tramways Act 1870 shall subject as herein-after provided extend and apply to any main of the Metropolitan Electric Supply Company Limited (in this section called "the supply company") which may be affected by the execution of the works by this Act authorised or by the adaptation or alteration of any tramway of the Company under the Act of 1903 as if those works were a tramway within the meaning of the said sections and as if the said main were a main or pipe for the supply of gas. Provided always that if within seven days of the receipt by the supply company of the notice required by subsection (1) of the said section 30 as applied by this section to be given by the Company the supply company shall by notice in writing so require the supply company may by their own engineer or workmen execute any work of lowering or altering the position of any main which they would be entitled under the provisions of the said section to require the Company to execute and shall carry out such work with all reasonable speed and the Company shall on the completion thereof pay to the supply company the reasonable expenses incurred by them in carrying out such work :

A.D. 1904.

Provided also that nothing in this section contained shall prejudice take away or alter the rights and powers of the Willesden Urban District Council and their engineer under section 15 of the Metropolitan Electric Supply Company Act 1898 and section 3 of the Metropolitan Electric Supply Company Act 1901 and those sections shall apply to any main of the supply company in the urban district of Willesden which may be lowered or altered under the provisions of this Act but nothing in those sections contained shall be deemed to prevent the laying of any main so lowered or altered at a greater depth than two feet under the surface of the ground.

16. Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Acts to sell and convey or release lands may if they think fit subject to the provisions of those Acts and of this Act grant to the Company any easement right or privilege (not being an easement right or privilege of water in which persons other than the grantors have an interest) required for the purposes of this Act in over or affecting any such lands and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rentcharges so far as the same are applicable in this behalf shall extend and apply to such grants and to such easements rights and privileges as aforesaid respectively.

Persons under disability may grant easements &c.

17. And whereas in the construction of the works by this Act authorised or otherwise in the exercise by the Company of the powers of this Act it may happen that portions only of the properties shown or partly shown on the deposited plans will be sufficient for the purposes of the Company and that such portions or some other portions less than the whole can be severed from the remainder of the said properties without material detriment thereto Therefore the following provisions shall have effect :—

Owners may be required to sell parts only of certain lands and buildings.

- (1) The owner of and persons interested in any of the properties whereof the whole or part is shown on the deposited plans and described in the deposited book of reference and whereof a portion only is required for the purposes of the Company or each or any of them are herein-after included in the term "the owner" and the said properties are herein-after referred to as "the referenced properties":

- (2) If for twenty-one days after the service of notice to treat in respect of a specified portion of any of the referenced properties the owner shall fail to notify in writing to the Company that he alleges that such portion cannot be severed from the remainder of the property without material detriment thereto he may be required to sell and convey to the Company such portion only without the Company being obliged or compellable to purchase the whole the Company paying for the portion so taken and making compensation for any damage sustained by the owner by severance or otherwise:
- (3) If within such twenty-one days the owners shall by notice in writing to the Company allege that such portion cannot be so severed the jury arbitrators or other authority to whom the question of disputed compensation shall be submitted (herein-after referred to as "the tribunal") shall in addition to the other questions required to be determined by it determine whether the portion of the referenced property specified in the notice to treat can be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto and if not whether any and what other portion less than the whole (but not exceeding the portion over which the Company have compulsory powers of purchase) can be so severed:
- (4) If the tribunal determine that the portion of the referenced property specified in the notice to treat or any such other portion as aforesaid can be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto the owner may be required to sell and convey to the Company the portion which the tribunal shall have determined to be so severable without the Company being obliged or compellable to purchase the whole the Company paying such sum for the portion taken by them including compensation for any damage sustained by the owner by severance or otherwise as shall be awarded by the tribunal : A.D. 1904.

- (5) If the tribunal determine that the portion of the referenced property specified in the notice to treat can notwithstanding the allegation of the owner be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto the tribunal may in its absolute discretion determine and order that the costs charges and expenses incurred by the owner incident to the arbitration or inquiry shall be borne and paid by the owner :
- (6) If the tribunal determine that the portion of the referenced property specified in the notice to treat cannot be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto (and whether or not they shall determine that any other portion can be so severed) the Company may withdraw their notice to treat and thereupon they shall pay to the owner all costs charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by him in consequence of such notice :
- (7) If the tribunal determine that the portion of the referenced property specified in the notice to treat cannot be severed from the remainder without material detriment thereto but that any such other portion as aforesaid can be so severed the Company in case they shall not withdraw the notice to treat shall pay to the owner all costs charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by him in consequence of such notice or such portion thereof as the tribunal shall having regard to the circumstances of the case and their final determination think fit.

The provisions of this section shall be in force notwithstanding anything in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 contained and nothing contained in or done under this section shall be held as determining or as being or implying an admission that any of the referenced properties or any part thereof is or is not or but for this section would or would not be subject to the provisions of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845.
