8 & 9 ELIZ. 2.

CHAPTER 10

An Act to apply certain sums out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the years ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and sixty and one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one.

[22nd March, 1960]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sums hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and sixty, the sum of eighty-two million, twenty-six thousand and thirty-two pounds.

Issue of £82,026,032 out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of the year ending 31st March, 1960.

2. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one, the sum of two thousand two hundred and twenty-three million, six hundred and seventy-six thousand and two hundred pounds.

Issue of £2,223,676,200 out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of the year ending 31st March, 1961.

3.—(1) The Treasury may borrow from any person by the issue of Treasury Bills or otherwise, and the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland may advance to the Treasury on the credit of the said sums, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole two thousand three hundred and five million, seven hundred and two thousand, two hundred and thirty-two pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

(2) The date of payment of any Treasury Bills issued under this section shall be a date not later than the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one, and section six 40 & 41 Vict. of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877 (which relates to the renewal of bills) shall not apply with respect to those bills.

(3) Any money borrowed otherwise than on Treasury Bills shall be repaid, with any interest payable thereon, out of the Consolidated Fund, at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the money was borrowed.

(4) Any money borrowed under this section shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such Fund is available.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund Act, 1960.

CHAPTER 11

An Act to amend the law as to the superannuation benefits which may be granted to or in respect of certain members of Her Majesty's foreign service.
[22nd March, 1960]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Limit on special increases of superannuation benefits which may be granted in certain cases.
6 & 7 Geo. 6. c. 35.

1.—(1) For the purposes of any grant after the passing of this Act under section two of the Foreign Service Act, 1943 (which provides that where the employment in Her Majesty's foreign service of an officer of a grade not lower than that of second secretary is terminated before the retiring age, and the Secretary of State certifies that the termination is desirable in the public interest, there may be granted to that officer a superannuation allowance and an additional allowance, together with additional amounts by way of special increases added to those allowances), in subsection (2) of that section the words from "subject" onwards (which limit the amount which may be granted by way of such a special increase) shall cease to have effect, and instead thereof the following provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to any such grant.

(2) Any such special increase added to the superannuation or additional allowance—

(a) shall not be such as to bring the amount of that allowance up to an amount higher than that which could have been granted apart from any such increase if at the date of the termination of the officer's employment he had completed such reckonable service not exceeding forty
