

1. Subsection (2) of section ninety-seven of the Road Traffic Act, 1960 (which empowers the Minister of Transport by regulations to vary the minimum age for driving motor cycles, or motor cycles of any class or description, on roads) shall have effect as if for the words "such minimum age, not being less than sixteen years, as may be so prescribed" there were substituted the words "such minimum age as may be so prescribed, not being less than—

(a) sixteen years, in the case of motor cycles other than those of the class or description specified in the following paragraph;

(b) fifteen years, in the case of motor cycles whereof the cylinder capacity of the engine does not exceed fifty cubic centimetres, being cycles equipped with pedals by means whereof they are capable of being propelled".

2. A provisional licence granted under section one hundred and two of the Road Traffic Act, 1960, on or after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and sixty-one, shall not authorise the driving of a motor cycle whereof the cylinder capacity of the engine exceeds two hundred and fifty cubic centimetres.

3.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Road Traffic (Driving of Motor Cycles) Act, 1960.

(2) This Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

CHAPTER 1

An Act to provide for United Kingdom contributions towards the cost of certain works for the Indus river basin.
[20th December, 1960]

WHEREAS on the nineteenth day of September, nineteen hundred and sixty, a treaty was signed on behalf of the Governments of India and Pakistan with respect to the utilisation of the waters of the Indus system of rivers:

And whereas on the same day Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom entered into an agreement with certain other Governments and with the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (hereafter referred to as "the Bank") for the establishment of an Indus Basin Development Fund (hereafter referred to as "the Fund") to be administered by the Bank and for the making (subject to such parliamentary approval as might be necessary) of contributions to the Fund by the parties to the agreement for the purpose of financing the construction of works required for the effective utilisation by Pakistan of the waters assigned to it by the treaty:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

United Kingdom contributions to the Indus fund.

1. The Secretary of State may, out of moneys provided by Parliament, make from time to time to or to the order of the Bank, for the purposes of the Fund, payments by way of grant not exceeding in the aggregate twenty million eight hundred and sixty thousand pounds.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Indus Basin Development Fund Act, 1960.

CHAPTER 2

An Act to amend the British North America Act, 1867.
[20th December, 1960]

WHEREAS the Senate and House of Commons of Canada in Parliament assembled have submitted addresses to Her Majesty praying that Her Majesty may graciously be pleased to cause a measure to be laid before the Parliament of the United Kingdom for the enactment of the provisions hereinafter set forth:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Amendment as to tenure of office of judges.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 3.

1. Section ninety-nine of the British North America Act, 1867, is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

“Tenure of office of judges. 99.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the judges of the superior courts shall hold office during good behaviour, but shall be removable by the Governor General on address of the Senate and House of Commons.

(2) A judge of a superior court, whether appointed before or after the coming into force of this section, shall cease to hold office upon attaining the age of seventy-five years, or upon the coming into force of this section if at that time he has already attained that age.”

Short title and citation.

2. This Act may be cited as the British North America Act, 1960; and the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1952, and this Act may be cited together as the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1960.

Commencement.

3. This Act shall come into force on the first day of March, nineteen hundred and sixty-one.
