CHAPTER 35

An Act to enable effect to be given to an international agreement for the establishment and operation of an International Development Association, and for purposes connected therewith. [2nd June, 1960]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. In this Act "the Agreement" means any agreement which The Agreement and the Association may be signed and accepted on behalf of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom in pursuance of Articles approved on the twenty-sixth day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty, by the executive directors of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and providing for the establishment and operation of an international body to be called the International Development Association (copies of which Articles, and of a report thereon of the said directors, were laid before Parliament by command of Her Majesty on the ninth day of March, nineteen hundred and sixty); and "the Association" means the International Development Association established by the Agreement.

2.—(1) There shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom all sums required for the purpose of making Financial provisions. payments on behalf of Her Majesty's said Government under the following provisions of the Agreement, that is to say—

(a) paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 2 of Article II (which relate to the initial subscription of members);

(b) paragraph (a) of section 2 of Article IV (which relates to falls in the par or foreign exchange value of currencies of members).

(2) The Treasury may, for the purpose of providing any sums to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund under subsection (1) of this section or any part of such sums, or of providing for the replacement of sums so paid, raise money in any manner in which they are authorised to raise money under the National Loans Act, 1939; and any securities created and issued for that purpose shall be deemed for all purposes to have been created and issued under that Act. 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 117.

(3) Any sums received by Her Majesty's said Government from the Association in pursuance of the Agreement shall be paid into the Exchequer; and the sums so paid into the Exchequer shall be issued out of the Consolidated Fund at such times as the Treasury may direct, and shall be applied by the Treasury as follows, that is to say—

(a) so much of those sums as represents principal shall be applied in redeeming or paying off debt of such description as the Treasury think fit;

(b) so much of those sums as represents interest shall be applied towards meeting such part of the annual charges for the National Debt as represents interest.

(4) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by section one of the National Loans Act, 1939, the Treasury may, if they think fit so to do, create and issue to the Association, in such form as they think fit, any such non-interest-bearing and non-negotiable notes or other obligations as are provided for by paragraph (e) of section 2 of Article II of the Agreement, and the sums payable under any such notes or other obligations shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

14 Geo. 6.
c. 14.

3.—(1) Without prejudice to the powers conferred by section one of the International Organisations (Immunities and Privileges) Act, 1950, Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provisions as She may consider reasonably necessary for carrying into effect any of the provisions of the Agreement relating to the status, immunities and privileges of the Association and its governors, directors, alternates, officers and employees.

(2) An Order in Council under this section may be made so as to extend to any part of Her Majesty's dominions (other than Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, Ceylon and Ghana, and any territory administered by the Government of any of those countries) and, to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction therein, to any other territory for whose foreign relations Her Government in the United Kingdom is responsible:

Provided that if, whether before or after the passing of this Act, effect is given by or under the law of any such part of Her Majesty's dominions or other territory to the said provisions of the Agreement, no Order in Council made under this section shall extend to that part of Her Majesty's dominions or other territory in respect of any period for which effect is so given to the said provisions.

(3) Any Order in Council under this section may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Order in Council.

(4) No recommendation shall be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order under this section unless a draft of the Order has been laid before Parliament and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.
