

1964 No. 4

A MEASURE passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England to enable the Holy Table in a Church or Chapel to be immovable and to be made of any suitable material. [15th April 1964]

Quality of Holy Table.

1. The Holy Table used at the celebration of the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion in any Church or Chapel may be either movable or immovable and may be made of wood, stone or other material suitable for the purpose for which the Table is to be used.

Extent.

2. This Measure shall extend to the whole of the Provinces of Canterbury and York except the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man:

Provided that:—

- (a) this Measure may be applied to the Channel Islands as defined in the Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measures 1931 and 1957, or either of them, in accordance with those Measures; and
- (b) if an Act of Tynwald so provides, this Measure shall extend to the Isle of Man subject to such modifications, if any, as may be specified in such Act of Tynwald.

Short title.

3. This Measure may be cited as the Holy Table Measure 1964.
