CHAPTER 14.

An Act to authorise the issue of Currency Notes, and to make provision with respect to the Note Issue of Banks.
[6th August 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) The Treasury may, subject to the provisions of this Act, issue currency notes for one pound and for ten shillings, and those notes shall be current in the United Kingdom in the same manner and to the same extent and as fully as sovereigns and half-sovereigns are current and shall be legal tender in the United Kingdom for the payment of any amount.

One pound and ten shilling currency notes.

(2) Currency notes under this Act shall be in such form and of such design and printed from such plate and on such paper and be authenticated in such manner as may be directed by the Treasury.

(3) The holder of a currency note shall be entitled to obtain on demand, during office hours at the Bank of England, payment for the note at its face value in gold coin which is for the time being legal tender in the United Kingdom.

(4) The Treasury may, subject to such conditions as to time, manner, and order of presentation as they think fit, call in any currency notes under this Act on paying for those notes at their face value in gold.

(5) Currency notes under this Act shall be deemed to be bank notes within the meaning of the Forgery Act, 1913, and any other enactment relating to offences in respect of bank notes which is for the time being in force in any part of the British

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to amend the Diseases of Animals Act, 1910, in respect of the Exportation of Horses.

[7th August 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) The prohibition contained in section one of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1910, on shipping or attempting to ship unfit horses in certain cases, shall be extended so as to include any horse unless certified by a veterinary inspector in accordance with that section, to be capable of being worked without suffering, and accordingly subsection (1) of that section shall have effect as though after the word “cruelty” there were inserted the words “and to be capable of being worked without suffering.” Amendments of 10 Edw. 7. &
1 Geo. 5. c. 20.

(2) The said section one shall have effect as though the following subsection were substituted for subsection (2) thereof:—

(2) If any horse examined under this Act is found by the veterinary inspector to be in such a physical condition that it is cruel to keep it alive or to be permanently incapable of being worked without suffering, the inspector may, whether the owner consents or not, slaughter it, or cause it to be slaughtered, in such a manner as to inflict as little suffering as possible.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Exportation of Horses Act, 1914; and the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1911, Short title and commencement.
