

CHAPTER 20.

An Act to enable apprentices to Law Agents in Scotland A.D. 1914.
to reckon service in connection with the present war
as service under an indenture of apprenticeship for the purposes of the Law Agents (Scotland) Act, 1873.
[27th November 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. Where any person has served since the fourth day of August nineteen hundred and fourteen, or shall serve in any of the naval or military forces of the Crown in the present war, and was or shall be during the period of such service under an indenture of apprenticeship in terms of the Law Agents (Scotland) Act, 1873, one half of the period of such service shall be reckoned as actual service under such indenture. War service to reckon towards apprenticeship. 36 & 37 Vict. c. 63.

2. This Act may be cited as the Law Agents Apprenticeship (War Service) (Scotland) Act, 1914. Short title.
