CHAPTER 60.

An Act to provide for raising Money for the present War.
[28th August 1914.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved that money be raised in manner provided by this Act; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Any money required for raising the supply granted to His Majesty for the service of the year ending the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and fifteen, may be raised in such manner as the Treasury think fit, and for that purpose they may create and issue any securities by means of which any public loan has been raised or may be raised or such other securities bearing such rate of interest and subject to such conditions as to repayment, redemption, or otherwise as they think fit.

Power to raise money for the purposes of war.

(2) The principal and interest of any sums so raised (including any annuities created for the purpose) and any sums required for defraying any expenses incurred in connexion with the raising of those sums shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof.

(3) The powers given to the Treasury under this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers of the Treasury for the time being to borrow.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the War Loan Act, 1914.

CHAPTER 61.

An Act to enable His Majesty, by Order in Council, to make regulations with respect to Special Constables appointed during the present war.

[28th August 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows.

Powers to make regulations with respect to special constables
1 & 2 Will 4
c. 41
45 & 46 Vict
c. 50

1.—(1) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, make regulations with respect to the appointment and position of special constables appointed during the present war under the Special Constables Act, 1831, or under section one hundred and ninety-six of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and may, by those regulations, provide—

- (a) that the power to authorise the nomination and appointment of special constables under the Special Constables Act, 1831, may be exercised although a tumult, riot, or felony has not taken place or is not immediately apprehended; and
- (b) that any special constables to which the regulations apply shall, in the execution of their duty, act under such direction as may be specified in the regulations; and
- (c) for the application to special constables to which the regulations apply of any of the provisions of the Police Acts, 1839 to 1910 (including those relating to the grant of allowances or gratuities to constables injured, and to the dependents of constables killed, in the execution of their duty), subject to such modifications as may be specified in the regulations; and
- (d) for giving validity and effect to the appointment of special constables, or any other action taken with respect to special constables, since the commencement of the present war, but before the regulations are made; and
