

SCHEDULE.

RULES FOR DETERMINING THE SUM TO BE PAID IN RESPECT OF INCREASE OF BURDEN ON RATEPAYERS.

1. Regard shall be had to—

- (a) The difference, if any, between the burden on the ratepayers which will properly be incurred by the authority of an area in respect of which an alteration of boundaries has taken place in meeting the cost of executing any of their powers and duties, and the burden on the ratepayers which would properly have been incurred by the authority in meeting such cost, had no alteration of boundaries taken place; provided that the loss of rateable area as such shall not of itself be held to be an increase of burden;
- (b) The length of time during which any increase of burden may be expected to continue.

2. The sum payable to any authority in respect of any increase of burden shall not exceed, or, if payable by instalments or by way of annuity, the capitalised value of the instalments or annuity shall not exceed, the average annual increase of burden multiplied by fifteen.

CHAPTER 75.

An Act to authorise the regulation and restriction of the slaughter of animals used for food. [31st August 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Power to restrict slaughter.

1. The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may, for the purpose of maintaining a sufficient breeding stock, by Order regulate and restrict the slaughter in England and Wales, either generally or in any particular area, of animals used for human food, and may revoke, extend, or vary any Order so made, but any Order shall cease to operate at the expiration of one year from the passing of this Act except in relation to proceedings for any offence committed before such expiration.

Application to Scotland and Ireland.

2. This Act shall apply to Scotland and Ireland with the substitution for the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries of the Board of Agriculture for Scotland and the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland respectively.

Offences.

3. If any person acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any provision of an Order made under this Act he shall be liable upon summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds ; or, if the offence is committed with respect to more than four animals, to a fine not exceeding five pounds for each animal.

4. This Act may be cited as the Slaughter of Animals Act, Short title 1914.

CHAPTER 76.

An Act to extend and vary as respects the present War the relief from Death Duties given under section fourteen of the Finance Act, 1900. [31st August 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Section fourteen of the Finance Act, 1900 (which relates to the remission of death duties in case of persons killed in war), shall have effect as respects the present war as if it applied to property passing to lineal ancestors as well as to property passing to the widow or lineal descendants, and as if the amount of the duty to be remitted or repaid under that section were, instead of the amount therein mentioned, the following amounts :—

Extension of remission of death duties in case of persons killed in the present war.
63 & 64 Vict. c. 7.

(a) Where the value for the purpose of estate duty of the property passing to the widow, lineal descendants, or lineal ancestors does not exceed five thousand pounds, the whole of the death duties leviable in respect of that property ; and

(b) Where the said value exceeds five thousand pounds—

(i) in respect of the first five thousand pounds, the whole of the death duties ; and

(ii) so much of the duties leviable in respect of the remainder as exceeds the sum which, if accumulated at compound interest at the rate of three per centum per annum from the date of death with half-yearly rests would, at the expiration of the period of the normal expectation of life of a person of the age of the deceased at the time of death (calculated in accordance with the Tables of Mortality of Government Life Annuitants, 1912), amount to the whole of the duties so leviable.

(2) The benefits of the relief given by this section as respects the first five thousand pounds shall be apportioned rateably among the several persons who would otherwise bear the duties remitted or repaid according to the amounts which they would so bear and without regard to their respective rights of priority.
