

CHAPTER 83.

An Act to enable the Army Council to fix the mode of payment of Military Pensions. [18th September 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Mode of payment of pensions

1. Notwithstanding anything in any Act, Order, or Royal Warrant to the contrary, pensions payable in respect of military service shall be issued in advance at such intervals (not exceeding three months) as the Army Council may from time to time by order direct :

Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of pensions granted before the passing of this Act, and that an Order of the Army Council under this section may in any case provide that, where a soldier who has enlisted before the passing of this Act dies whilst in receipt of a pension, a sum not exceeding the amount of his pension for three months may be paid to his personal representatives.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Army Pensions Act, 1914.

CHAPTER 84.

An Act to make provision with respect to Constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary and Dublin Metropolitan Police who are Reservists or join the Naval or Military Forces. [18th September 1914.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Naval or military service of Irish Police Reservists.

1.—(1) Where a constable of the Royal Irish Constabulary or Dublin Metropolitan Police has, in pursuance of a Royal proclamation, been called into actual service as a member of any Royal Naval Reserve force, or been called out for permanent service as a member of the Army Reserve, on his return to the police force his subsequent pay in that force, and any pension, allowance, or gratuity granted after his return to him or his dependents under the Acts relating to that force, may, if the Lord Lieutenant so directs, be calculated in like manner as if his service under the proclamation had been service in the police force.
