

and seven: Provided that where the first ordinary poor rate made during the year nineteen hundred and six was made before the passing of this Act and the first special rate was not made therewith, then the amount of the instalment payable by any purchaser which would have been leviable by that rate shall be added to the amount of the second instalment payable by him, and the total amount of both instalments shall be levied by the special rate made at the same time as the first ordinary poor rate made during the year nineteen hundred and seven.

(7) The first instalment payable by each purchaser of seed potatoes shall be due on the day on which the first of such special rates is made, and the second instalment shall be due on the day on which the second of such special rates is made. Any such instalment may be paid to the guardians at any earlier date.

3. No electoral disability or loss of parliamentary or other franchise shall be incurred by any voter by reason of the purchase of seed potatoes under this Act, nor shall any person be or be deemed to have been disqualified under any Article in the Schedule to the Local Government (Application of Enactments) Order, 1898, by reason of his having entered into a contract for such purchase. Saving as to franchise and disqualification.

4. All orders and regulations made, sanctions given, and things done by the Local Government Board in relation to the provision during the period in that behalf in this Act mentioned of seed potatoes by the guardians of any union, and any rate made before the passing of this Act which would have been valid if this Act had previously passed, shall be and be deemed to have been valid and effectual for all purposes. Validation of orders, &c. of Local Government Board.

5. In this Act—

The expression “the Local Government Board” means the Local Government Board for Ireland; and

The expression “the Board of Works” means the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland.

6. This Act may be cited as the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Act, 1906. Short title.

CHAPTER 4.

An Act to extend certain provisions of the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts to Money Orders transmitted to and from Foreign States and British Protectorates.

[29th May 1906.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Extension of 46 & 47 Vict.
c. 58, s. 4, to foreign states and British protectorates.

43 & 44 Vict.
c. 33.

Short title.

1. The provisions of section four of the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1883, shall extend to any case where an arrangement is made with the government, or with any person on behalf, of a foreign state or British protectorate for the transmission of small sums through the post offices of the United Kingdom and the foreign state or British protectorate by means of money orders of a like character to those issued under the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, as amended by any subsequent enactment.

2. This Act may be cited as the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1906, and may be cited with the Post Office Acts, 1837 to 1904, and may also be cited, and shall be construed as one, with the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 to 1904.

CHAPTER 5.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the falsification of Seamen's and Soldiers' Certificates of Service or Discharge, and to false statements made, used, or given in connection with Entry or Enlistment into His Majesty's Naval, Military, or Marine Forces.

[22nd June 1906.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Forgery of service or discharge certificate and personation.

1.—(1) If any person forges the certificate of service or discharge of any seaman or soldier, or any certificate purporting to be a certificate of service or discharge of a seaman or soldier, or utters any such certificate knowing it to be forged, or obtains or seeks to obtain any employment or other advantage by means of any forged or counterfeit certificate of service or discharge, or personates the holder of a certificate of service or discharge, he shall on conviction under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts be liable in the case of a first offence to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one month, or to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, and in the case of a second or subsequent offence to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression "seaman" means a man who has served in His Majesty's naval forces, and the expression "soldier" means a man who has served in His Majesty's military or marine forces.

Penalty on using or giving false statements for enlistment.

2. If any man when entering or enlisting or offering himself for entry or enlistment in His Majesty's naval, military, or marine forces makes use of any forged or counterfeit statement as to his character or previous employment, or any statement
