

No. 2.

A MEASURE passed by the National Assembly
of the Church of England

To amend the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1926.

[23rd November 1927.]

Amendment of Clergy Pensions
Measure, 1926.

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1926 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Measure”), an agreement made with a compulsory contributor who becomes a voluntary contributor may provide that in the event of his again becoming a compulsory contributor—

- (i) the time during which he was a voluntary contributor shall be deemed to be and be calculated as part of his qualifying period of pensionable service under the principal Measure;
- (ii) all contributions theretofore paid by him as a voluntary contributor shall be treated as contributions made by a compulsory contributor under the principal Measure, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

Short title
and commencement.

2. This Measure may be cited as the Clergy Pensions (Amendment) Measure, 1927, and shall take effect as from the appointed day under the principal Measure, and this Measure and the principal Measure may be cited together as the Clergy Pensions Measures, 1926 and 1927.

No. 3.

A MEASURE passed by the National Assembly
of the Church of England.

To make temporary provision for representation in the House of Laity and the constitution of Diocesan Conferences upon the foundation of new bishopricks, and for purposes connected therewith.

[23rd November 1927.]

Powers of Church
Assembly

1.—(1) The Church Assembly shall have power to make provision upon the foundation, either before or after the passing of this Measure, of a new bishoprick upon the foundation of a new bishoprick.

for the following matters (that is to say) :—

- (i) The representation of the area affected in the House of Laity during the transitional period;
 - (ii) The constitution or re-constitution of the Diocesan Conference of any new diocese concerned; and
 - (iii) Any matters incidental to or consequential upon the above matters.
- (2) The Church Assembly in exercising the powers conferred on it by this section—

- (i) may allocate any members of the House of Laity originally elected by the representative electors of the area affected or any part thereof to the new dioceses concerned or any of them and so that any member allocated to a new diocese shall be in the same position as if he had been elected by the representative electors in the Diocesan Conference of that diocese;
- (ii) may dissolve with a view to its re-constitution the Diocesan Conference of any diocese the area of which is altered by the foundation of the new bishoprick;
- (iii) may modify for the purposes only of the original constitution or the re-constitution of the Diocesan Conference of a new diocese concerned any of the provisions of the Constitution and the Diocesan Conferences Regulation, 1922, as to the election of representatives and other matters relating to Diocesan Conferences; and
- (iv) may sanction a scheme made or approved by the bishop of a new diocese concerned for the original constitution or the re-constitution of the Diocesan Conference thereof.

2.—(1) The powers conferred by this Measure may be exercised by resolution or otherwise as the Church Assembly may determine. Exercise of powers.

(2) Prima facie evidence of any resolution or other exercise of any power conferred by this Measure may be given by producing a copy thereof signed by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Church Assembly.

Interpretation.

3. In this Measure—

- (i) the expression “new diocese” includes both any diocese constituted upon and any diocese the area of which is altered by the foundation of a new bishoprick;
- (ii) the expression “area affected” means the areas of the new dioceses concerned collectively; and
- (iii) the expression “transitional period” means the period between the foundation of a new bishoprick and the next election to the House of Laity.

Short title.

4. This Measure may be cited as the New Dioceses (Transitional Provisions) Measure, 1927.

Extent.

5. This Measure shall apply to the whole of the provinces of Canterbury and York, except the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.
