WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt and to include in such Order supplemental incidental and consequential provisions including provisions for relieving from liability ministers who have solemnized the marriages to which the Order relates :

And whereas by an Instrument dated the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five under the common seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners the new church of St. Mary in the parish of Llanfairisgaer in the county of Carnarvon and the diocese of Bangor was substituted for the old church of Saint Mary situate within and until that date the parish church of the said parish :

And whereas the said old church of Saint Mary was licensed for the solemnization of marriages on the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five :

And whereas divers marriages have been solemnized therein between the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five and the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five :

And whereas it is expedient in the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubt touching the validity of such marriages and to make certain supplemental incidental and consequential provisions :

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Sir William Joynson-Hicks Baronet one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect :—

- (1) All banns of matrimony and marriages published and solemnized between the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five and the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five in the old church of Saint Mary in the parish of Llanfairisgaer in the county of Carnarvon and the diocese of Bangor shall be deemed to have been as valid as if they had been published and solemnized in a church in which such banns might be published and marriages solemnized lawfully : A.D. 1927.

- (2) A minister who has solemnized any marriage referred to in the first paragraph of this Order shall not be liable to any proceedings for penalties whatsoever or to any ecclesiastical censure by reason of having solemnized such marriage :
- (3) The registers of the marriages so solemnized or copies of the registers shall be received in all courts as evidence of those marriages in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.
