

CHAPTER xxi.

An Act to repeal the Act of the eleventh year of His late Majesty King George IV. chapter fourteen (which provided for the establishment of a market in the parish of Saint Pancras) to provide for the appropriation as open ground of other land in substitution for any part of the site of that market on which it is proposed to erect buildings and for purposes connected with the purposes aforesaid. [11th June 1931.] A.D. 1931.

WHEREAS by section three of the Act of the eleventh year of His late Majesty King George IV. chapter fourteen it was provided that certain open spaces of ground or squares situate in the Parish of St. Pancras or such of them or such parts thereof respectively as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods Forests and Land Revenues thought proper should be appropriated as the sites of a market :

And whereas in pursuance of the said section the site specified in the Schedule hereto (in this Act referred to as "Cumberland Market") was appropriated for the said purposes :

And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be repealed but that no part of Cumberland Market should be built on until other suitable land not less in total area than the part proposed to be
