CHAPTER 12.

An Act to extend the periods of operation of section one and subsection (2) of section three of the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1924, and of subsection (1) of section five of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1925.

[30th June 1926.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The following provisions of the Acts relating to unemployment insurance, that is to say:—

- (a) Section one of the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1924 (which provides that until the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, insured contributors are to have certain rights in respect of the receipt of unemployment benefit); and
- (b) Subsection (2) of section three of the said Act (which as amended by section two of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1925, provides that during the period between the commencement of the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1924, and the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, a person is to be entitled to receive benefit if the Minister thinks fit so to direct notwithstanding that the first statutory condition may not have been fulfilled in his case); and
- (c) Subsection (1) of section five of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1925 (which provides that it shall not be necessary for the Minister at any time before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, to require any association to make for the purposes of proviso (a) to subsection (1) of section seventeen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, any greater provision for unemployment benefit than would have been required to be made for those purposes under that Act as originally enacted)
