

No. 2.

A MEASURE passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England

To transfer the Rural Deaneries of Pontefract and Hemsworth from the Diocese of York to the Diocese of Wakefield, to provide for additional honorary canonries in the Cathedral Church of Wakefield, and for purposes connected therewith. [26th March 1926.]

1. As from the appointed day the rural deaneries of Pontefract and Hemsworth (in this Measure referred to as "the transferred rural deaneries"), consisting respectively of the parishes set out in Part I. and Part II. of the Schedule to this Measure, shall be transferred from the diocese of York to the diocese of Wakefield and shall be in the archdeaconry of Huddersfield.

Transfer of rural deaneries of Pontefract and Hemsworth.

2.—(1) The patronage of all ecclesiastical dignities and benefices situate in the transferred rural deaneries which immediately before the appointed day is vested in the Archbishop of York shall as from the appointed day be transferred to and vest in the Bishop of Wakefield.

Provisions
consequential on transfer.

(2) As soon as possible after the appointed day there shall be transferred to the registrar of the diocese of Wakefield or to such other officer of that diocese as the bishop thereof may appoint, from the registrar of the diocese of York or any other officer of that diocese who may be in possession thereof, all terriers, tithe apportionments, maps, plans and other documents relating exclusively to the transferred rural deaneries or to any of the parishes situate therein.

3. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners may at any time within twelve months after the appointed day lay before His Majesty in Council for confirmation a scheme for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

Schemes by Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

- (1) for founding additional honorary canonries in the Cathedral Church of Wakefield to any number not exceeding six;

- (2) for providing for the transfer of any property which at the appointed day is held by the diocesan authority of the diocese of York, or by any body of trustees in that diocese, on behalf of any parish affected by this Measure to the diocesan authority of the diocese of Wakefield;
- (3) for making such arrangements as may seem to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners requisite to preclude any officer holding office at the passing of this Measure from being prejudiced by this Measure or any Order in Council or scheme thereunder;
- (4) for making such other provisions and arrangements, whether similar or not to the foregoing, as may be necessary for carrying into complete effect the provisions of this Measure;

and a scheme under this section when so confirmed shall have effect as if enacted in this Measure.

Saving as to charitable endowments.

4. Nothing in this Measure or in any scheme thereunder shall prejudice or affect any right, interest or jurisdiction in or over any charitable endowment.

Saving as to service of incumbent, &c.

5. The service of any person either before, or partly before and partly after, the appointed day, as incumbent or curate in any parish which, by virtue of this Measure, is transferred from the diocese of York to the diocese of Wakefield, shall for the purpose of qualifying such incumbent or curate to be presented or nominated to any benefice in the patronage of the chapter of any cathedral or collegiate church be deemed to be service both in the diocese of Wakefield and in the diocese of York.

Definitions.

6. In this Measure the expression "the appointed day" means the first day of May nineteen hundred and twenty-six, and the expression "diocesan authority" has the same meaning as in the Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure, 1921.
